Publicity Campaign Spurs Notre Dame Ticket Sales

Seniors of Notre Dame High School, Elmira, are engaged in an all-out ticket drive to "sell the house" for the one-day production of their forthcoming play, "Love Is Eternal."

Play will be presented on Saturday, Feb. 9 at 3 p.m. and at 8:15 p.m.

According to Sister M. Edwina, R.S.M., director, "the seniors deserve credit for a wonderful job of advertising in connection with the play." Several radio interviews and two television appearances have been arranged.

MEMBERS OF THE play staff will appear on the "Carroll Caravan", WNBF channel 12, on Feb. 5 and on "Ed Kelly's Corner", WTVE channel 24 on Feb. 7. Posters have also been distributed throughout the city advertising the play.

A bulletin board display depicting the seats to be filled in the auditorium shows the daily results of the ticket sales. Each class's efforts are denoted by a special color on the seating chart. Project is the charge of students Suzette Cassidy and Frances Comereski.

New TV 'Tonight' Program Makes Monkeys Of Celebrities —And Those Who Watch

By ROBERT SMETT

American "night life" is obviously cluttered with back-biting, hating, scheming, perverted, bawdy people in Ceil Chapman gowns and Brooks Brothers suits, gazing at champagne glasses with glassy eyes.

If NBC's new "Tonight" show, seen locally over Rochester's station WROC-TV, is anything it is an insult to the good people who can only afford a television set and are too poor to enjoy a more lavish type of nightime entertainment. It is an insult to those suffering from insomnia or whose working hours allow them only the late night to relax and enjoy their TV.

I don't know how many thousands of dollars the initial program must have cost NBC. Six or eight of the highest paid TV interviewers talked to half a dozen of the highest paid entertainers in the U.S.

AT TIMES I had a "who's kidding who" feeling as interviewers overstepped good taste to ask personal questions of the "celebrities" — the answers most often came fast and furious and sometimes scurrilous. Only one person was being fooled — the audience — duped by one of the most elaborate burlesques any television system has had the audacity to present.

Stars of the evening included Joan Crawford, who with

heaven knows what authority spoke like a judging patriarch on the morals of Ingrid Bergman, Jayne Mansfield finally relinquished the subject of her physical measurements to tell of her plans for a heart-shaped bathtub.

Dean Martin's conversation regarding his ex-partner Jerry Lewis, no matter what anyone's opinion is on the subject, was the closest thing to flagrant defamation of character that I have ever seen or listened to. Martin may not have been responsible for his remarks — he was obviously the worse for "tee many martoonis."

IN GEORGE GOBEL'S only appearance, he ran before the camera for a one-second question regarding Miss Crawford's bedtime garb.

Somehow or another Bob Considine got an interview with Alf Landon into the proceedings. It seemed almost insipid in its lack of the risque.

Edward G. Robinson gave a touch of pseudo-gallantry to the whole affair by refusing to talk about his close association of late "with a certain young starlet." The subject seemingly was that older men are greater lovers than young men.

We even had a look into a gambling hall, where the owner justified his business since the people gathered around the card table would "spend their money anyway over some bar." Yes, in an hour and a half program, we saw everything but an opium den!

THE NEW "TONIGHT" program launched Tuesday by Jack Lascoulie and Constance Moore fell flat after the months of high humor provided by Steve Allen and Ernie Kovacks.

If this is "Nighttime U.S.A.", Mr. NBC — give it back to the owls and the night crawlers!

Indian Girl Serves As 'Girl Friday' To Fr. Courneen

Santa Cruz, Bolivia - Della, a young schoolteacher in an isolated Indian vilage near here is a real "Girl Friday" to the Maryknoll Missioners serving this rugged mountain area.

"Only 21 years old, Della teaches school in a small village that seldom sees a priest due to its inaccessibility," reports Father James R. Coureen, Maryknoll Missioner from Rochester, N. Y.

(Father Courneen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Courneen, 54 Rugby Ave., Rochester, N. Y.)

"And if you think missioners are the only ones who make sacrifices listen to Della's latest accomplishment.

"Not only did she expertly prepare 30 of her younger students for First Holy Communion but she also made the long journey into the mission for a priest.

'Fan Clubs' Time Waste, Say Girls

Cincinnati — (NC) — A group of Seton High School girls here labeled fan clubs for TV stars, athletes and other entertainers "a waste of precious energy and ability."

Members of the Mother Seton League, the girls called for discussion in English and religion classes of "worthwhile, charitable activities" to take the place of fan clubs.

As a "positive antidote" to the fan club craze, the girls will distribute a list of nearby places of interest that can be reached by bus and a list of places where girls can get free instruction in hobbies and sports.

BOB KEEFE

ANNE KEEFE

Bob & Anne Keefe Scheduled For Feb. 16 Drama Festival

Bob and Anne Keefe, well known local TV personalities, will describe television techniques at the annual Catholic Theatre Drama Festival listed at Our Lady of Mercy High School on Saturday, Feb. 16.

The Keefes are both associated with Rochester Station WROC-TV.

The Festival is aimed at teachers and students of drama and communications at the high school, college and community level. Top authorities in the field are scheduled on the day-long program.

Well known by the youngsters as "Gilly", Bob Keefe is seen weekly as a leprechaun character who introduces a cartoon program for young people. An immediate success at its inception, over 5,000 pictures of "Gilly" were requested by the "small fry" when the program was on the air only 4 weeks.

For three years Bob and Anne had the TV "Do It Yourself" show in which they demonstrated creative art work, household hints for both husbands and wives and projects for the children.

A "Jack of all trades" in TV and radio, Bob is often seen in a cowboy outfit ad libbing around a Western film, interviewing a popular sportsman, or he may be heard as disc jockey on a special hour weekday show for WHAM-Radio.

Bob's background also includes work in theatre at Catholic University, of which he is an alumnus, the Olney Summer Theatre, Md., Pittsford Summer Theatre and Rochester Music Theatre.

Bob is a member of the advisory board of the Genesee Settlement House and of the U.S.O. executive committee.

The Keefes have two children, Lisa and Peter.

Also appearing on the Festival program are the Rev. Urban Nagle, O. P., playwright and founder of the Blackfriars Guild, and Sister Mary Angelita, B.V.M., president of the National Catholic Theatre Conference, sponsor of the affair.

Festival chairman is Sister Mary Pius, R.S.M., drama director at Our Lady of Mercy High School.
