

Aquinas Junior Debaters Edge McQuaid In Tourney

Aquinas Institute debaters won over McQuaid Jesuit High School with a score of 9 to 7 in a meet on Feb. 7, according to the Rev. Joseph O'Reilly, C.S.B., Aquinas moderator.

Four teams completed 2 rounds of debate without a defeat. Debaters included Timothy Scharf and Anthony Zito, McQuaid, and Ken DeHond, Dan Shaughnessey, Brian Gibson, Paul Haney, John Miller and Graydon Vadas, Aquinas.

Subject of the debate was the agricultural policy of 80% parity as an aid to American farmers.

JUDGES INCLUDED the Rev. Daniel Hogan, Miss Beulah Watkins and the Messrs. Weber, Osterman, O'Connor, Dutcher, Reed, and Bloomfield.

Anthony Syracuse, Aquinas junior, and Paul Haney, sophomore, tied for the best speaker award.

The Rev. John-Paret, S.J., is moderator of the McQuaid group.

Highest Award

JAMES A. FIRESTONE, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Firestone of 34 Dewey Avenue in Fairport was presented the Eagle Scout Award at a Court of Honor Ceremony held Feb. 7. He has been in scouting for four years, and an Eagle Scout since last October when he appeared before the Eagle Scout Council in Troop 287. He is a sponsor in the Fairport Central High School and an active member in the Church of the Assumption in Fairport, where he has served as altar boy for the past five years, and a member of the Sodality there. For seven years he has attended Camp Meade Marie on Conesus Lake, and in addition two years with the scouts at Camp Massawogon. The Eagle Scout's father is president of the Holy Name Society of Assumption parish.

Members Sought For HNS In Watkins Glen Parish

Watkins Glen-The Holy Name Society of St. Mary of the Lake Church, Watkins Glen, is now in the final week of its annual membership drive. An intensive effort is being made by the Membership Committee under the leadership of Daniel Salvatore, Chairman, to enroll all the men of the parish who do not belong to the Society.

The Rev. Benedict Ehnann, pastor, said "Every Catholic man should be a Holy Name man. This is the only enrollment of our parish men - the only affiliation we ask of them. It provides a means of pulling together for parish activity and for promoting the kingdom of God here."

SPECIAL emphasis is being made upon the young men of the Parish, those 16 years of age or older. Anyone desiring membership in the Society or anyone who knows of anyone who is interested in joining the Confraternity is urged to contact Daniel Salvatore or any officer.

The Rev. Edward A. Shamoni, Moderator will hold the Official Reception Service for the new members at the close of the 8:30 Mass on Sunday, Feb. 10.

New members will be the guests of the Society at a Communion Breakfast at the Jefferson Hotel following the Reception Service. Present members were asked to have their reservations made by Thursday eve-
