Holy Ghost Fund Drive Tops Goal With $100,215

Pledges totaling $100,215, more than $10,000 over the goal, were reported this week in the new convent building fund campaign conducted Feb. 10 among parishioners of Holy Ghost Church, Coldwater Road, Gates.

The Rev. Albert J. Geiger, pastor, termed the campaign result "a real tribute to the sacrifices and labors of the good School Sisters of Notre Dame who staff our school." He commended the efforts of the 190-man committee which canvassed the parish.

Minimum goal was $90,000 in three-year pledges. Assisting in direction of the drive was Foley Associates Inc., a Rochester fund-raising organization.

CONSTRUCTION of the new convent already is underway, with completion expected in August. It will replace the nearly century-old frame dwelling now housing seven Sisters which will be razed to provide an addition to the parking area.

The new two-story red brick building is designed for a capacity of 10 Sisters. It will contain a chapel, community room, two guest parlors, dining room, kitchen and laundry.

Commenting on the campaign success, Father Geiger noted that more than 90 per cent of the parishioners cooperated by making
