3 Aquinas Seniors Get Commendations For Work

Three seniors at Aquinas Institute have been commended by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation for distinguished performance in its nationwide search for students of unusual ability, according to Rev. W. Oscar Regan, C.S.B., director of guidance.

The students honored are James Joseph Kelly of 46 Hamlin St.; Thomas Francis Neillis of 240 Lux St. and Vincent George Wisman of 149 Weyl St. They have also been named New York state runners-up in the 1957 Merit Scholarship competition.

"The seniors honored today are among the top one or two percent in ability in the state," according to John M. Stalmer, president of NMSC. "While they did not quite reach the finals of the 1957 Merit Scholarship competition, their unusual promise deserves recognition. Indeed, we want to encourage every one of them to make a special effort to obtain the best college education possible. Both student and country will profit."

As state runners-up, the local students will be sent letters of recommendation by NMSC for use in applying to the colleges they wish to attend.

THE NATIONAL Merit Scholarship competition provides the largest system of privately financed scholarships offered in the United States. High schools may enter their most outstanding students in the annual competition. The first hurdle the students face is the "Scholarship Qualifying Test," a high level measurement of potential ability to benefit from a college education.

This year, over 162,000 outstanding seniors from 12,500 high schools entered, with 750 four-

PRIZE WINNER, Paula Burke, editor of "The Gabriel," student publication, also a prize winner in national Christmas Seal Sale project of Tuberculosis Association.

Nazareth 'Gabriel,' Editor Win National Press Honors

Nazareth Academy's publication "The Gabriel" was judged one of the nine national winners in the twentieth school press project sponsored annually as part of the Christmas Seal Sale of the National Tuberculosis Association.

Author of the winning article was Paula Burke, editor of the school publication. Paula, a parishioner of St. John the Evangelist parish, Greece, is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Burke, 51 Allerton St. She also won a scholarship to Syracuse University from the Empire State Scholastic Press Association in a news story competition.

The Gabriel feature article was entitled "Enemy At Large" Take Care" and was illustrated with a cartoon by student artist Mary Katherine Gaugel. Award was made by Marie Gullette, executive director of the Rochester Health Association, Monroe County Tuberculosis Association.

Sophomores of Nazareth Academy will entertain sophomores and juniors from Aquinas Institute and McQuaid Jesuit High School at their dance, "Teen Twirl," March 1 from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. in the school. The Starlighters will furnish the music. Heading the committees for the dance are Sylvia Christophers and Ann Woerner, refreshments; Eileen Ford, checking; Margaret Mary Boland and Joanne DeLutis, welcome; Deanne Crisman, Patricia Streb, decorations; and Agnes Mastrella, clean up. Class officers Joan Dawson, Marjorie Brown, Bette Becker and Barbara O'Brien will act as general chairmen.

100 Attend Open House

More than 100 persons attended the open house marking the conclusion of the C.Y.O. Capri Club membership drive last Sunday in the Columbus Civic Centre ballroom. There will be a dance in the ballroom Feb. 22 from 9:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. with music by George Manning's orchestra. John Hojahan is in charge of refreshments. The club will hold a Mardi Gras Sunday, March 3.

Algerian Rebels Return Missioner

Paris — (NC) — Father Joseph Elan, who was kidnapped by Algerian rebels on December 2, has been returned unharmed to the place where he was captured. It was reported here. Father Elan, a member of the White Fathers of Africa, was ambushed by nationalists while returning to the small village where he lives after celebrating Mass at a mission outpost. The priest is in good condition and has stated that he was treated with respect and regard.

Pets Blessed On Patron's Day

Rome — (NC) — The feast of St. Anthony may not have meant anything special to most people, but it certainly was a great day for Roman pets. The little head-end street off the crowded marketplace of Piazza Vittorio bulged with Romans and their pets. The whole city was represented — from common dogs, cats and canaries to not-so-common parrots, turtles, and horses. The animals were gathered around the steps of the little church of Saint Eusebio, waiting to be blessed in the name of their patron, St. Anthony Abbot, protector of animals. His feast day is January 17th.

Mayor of Florence Florence, Italy (NC) — Mayor Giorgio La Pira of Florence has received a letter from Cardinal Wyszyński Primate of Poland, expressing thanks for the cable received from the Mayor by the Cardinal when he was released from prison. Refreshments will be served by the following Host and Hostesses: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scollick, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wurtz, Mrs. Jane Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Provenzano, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Magin.
