3 Scouts Attain Highest Award At Court Of Honor

Three boys from St. John the Evangelist Parish, Greece, received scouting's highest honors at a troop 138 court of honor held Monday, Feb. 25. Daniel Meagher and James VanAllan, Jr. were awarded the eagle scout badge and David Gosling was awarded the Explorer Silver Award.

AT THE SAME court of honor Troop 138 awarded scouting advancements in every rank of scouting and exploring, ranging from Tenderfoot to eagle and explorer apprentice to the explorer silver award. It is believed to be the first time that a troop has achieved such a wide range of scouting advancement in Otetiana Council according to leaders.

David Gosling is a junior at Marshall High School. He has played varsity soccer and basketball at Marshall. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gosling, 143 Nantucket Road. His father is the explorer advisor of Troop 138.

James VanAllan, Jr. is an eighth grade student at St. John School. He has played basketball on the school team and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James VanAllan, 314 Rye Road.

Daniel Meagher, Jr. is a sophomore at Aquinas Institute. He is an honor student, was on the freshman football squad last year, and is currently on the varsity track squad. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Meagher, 2761 Mt. Read Boulevard.

Aquinas Mission Bouts List 'Fighting Families'

Aquinas Mission Bout Finals at the Community War Memorial on March 14 will feature many names already familiar to boxing fans. Many "fighting families" have young-

Tom Enright will be defending his title this year, while his brother Terry tries for his first title shot. A few years ago, Bob Enright, another brother, was heavyweight king. A fourth Enright, Jack, now a Marine, is remembered for his fights with Mike Wade.

THE BELL family will be well represented with three brothers all expected to be strong contenders. Tom and Bob, the oldest, are twins. The third brother, Joe, is a sophomore contender.

John Fisher, a 5' 9", 154 lb. senior, is expected to be a finalist according to the school. While in grammar school he fought with the High-Chair Kids. This is his third year in the Aquinas bouts.

New Scout Troop Formed At St. Leo Church, Hilton

Investiture of 18 charter members and presentation of the official charter highlighted ceremonies of the new Boy Scout Troop 125 last Tuesday at St. Leo Parish, Hilton. The Rev. Jacob R. Rauber, chaplain, blessed the American and troop flags following services in the church.

Assisting Father Rauber in the investiture rites were Thomas Mance, scout chairman; Arthur Allen, scoutmaster, and Jack VanDorn, assistant. Kenneth Gretton, neighborhood commissioner, presented the charter to George Elchias, Holy Name Society president, the sponsoring institution.

Representatives of Otetiana Council present were: Dewey Sawyer, scout executive; Elmer Lissow, district commissioner; Leland Voorhees, district commissioner. Also church troop committee: Richard Smith, Lawrence Schicker, Don Foster, Edwin Foster.

Flag Presented Brownie Troop

Brownie Troop 594 received an American flag from Dick Schied, Auxiliary 6661, Veterans of Foreign Wars at ceremonies yesterday in St. Anne School auditorium. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. William J. Naughton, pastor; parents, Brownies and leaders were present.

Mrs. Louis Breiner and Mrs. Carl Amann are co-leaders and Mrs. James Fahy, assistant leader.
