McCurdy's Opens New Geneva Store To Serve Finger Lakes Region

McCurdy and Company opened its third store, McCurdy's of Geneva, on Thursday, Feb. 28. A complete department store, it is the largest store in the New Town and Country Plaza, on Routes 5 and 20, Hamilton Street and White Springs Road, just one mile from the center of Geneva. It will serve the residents of the Finger Lakes Area. The store has 50,000 square feet of space, all on one floor. Construction, however, has allowed for a second floor when expansion demands such a move. It has a two-story facade in native stone, white brick, steel and glass. It is completely air conditioned. DESIGNED by the nationally famous Raymond Loewy Corporation of New York, McCurdy's of Geneva was built by Emil Muller Construction Company of Rochester, owners of the Town and Country Plaza. There is parking space for 1,750 cars, with room for later expansion. Gerald B. Foland, a former divisional merchandise manager of McCurdy's Rochester store, is the manager of McCurdy's of Geneva. His assistant is Homer Scott, a long-time resident of Geneva.

George E. Shantz Dies, Father Of Priest, Nuns

George E. Shantz, 82, of 173 Meigs St., father of a priest and two nuns, died Tuesday morning, Feb. 26, 1957 at St. Mary's Hospital of a chronic illness.

Funeral services for Mr. Shantz, a retired real estate broker and active in Catholic lay organizations, and brother of the late Rev. Joseph Schantz, C. S. R., will be held at 8:30 a.m. today (Friday), March 1 at the home and at 10 a.m. in St. Joseph Church, Rochester.

Mr. Schantz's parents were the first couple to be married with solemn nuptials in 1852. It was in his great-grandfather's home, John B. Klem, on the 10-acre tract bounded by East Ave., Meigs St., Park Ave. and Goodman St. where a Redemptorist Father celebrated the first Mass in Rochester.

He was a member of the Arch-confraternity of St. Joseph Church, the Holy Name Society, Nocturnal Adoration Society and Mercy Guild of the Little Flower.

Mr. Schantz is survived by his son, the Rev. Raymond E. Schantz, C.S.R., a Redemptorist in charge of Holy Rosary Church, Richmond, Va.; and seven daughters, Sister Dorothy Marie of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Sister M. Elizabeth Anne of the Religious of the Sisters of Mercy, Mrs. George V. Schantz, Mrs. Florence Vitek, Misses Geraldine and Mary Schantz, Mrs. Donald Leahy and seven grandchildren, all residents of Rochester.

He was a grandson of the late Bernard Klem, who came to America in 1814 with his parents John B. and Anna Mary from Alsace-Lorraine. They were the first German settlers to take up residence in this part of New York State.

MR. SHANTZ attended St. Joseph School, Rochester Business Institute and St. Clement College, Saratoga Springs. He joined a wholesale footwear business in 1896 and for 12 years was a partner in it. He entered the real estate business in 1906, retiring 25 years later. He owned the major part of the "Liberty Pole" triangle for a period of 40 years.
