

Father-Son Breakfast To Be Held In Geneva

Geneva — Holy Name Society of St. Francis de Sales Church will hold a father and son communion breakfast after the 7 a. m. Mass Sunday, March 10, in the church.

A pancake and sausage breakfast will be served in the school hall. Tickets may be purchased at the rectory during the week, or from John Hastings, or James Ninestine.

Deadline for tickets is Friday, March 8.

Since March is being observed as Vocation Month, the Rev. Robert Smith will show colored slides of St. Bernard Seminary in Rochester. Entertainment will be provided by boys of the eighth grade.

He expressed the hope that the Deaneery members would pray to St. Joseph and have special devotion to him during the month set aside by the church in his honor. He concluded with the recitation of a poem "Limbo" by Sister Mary Ada.

Next First Saturday luncheon will be held in Canandaigua Hotel, Canandaigua. Hostesses will be Shortsville and Manchester units. Guest speaker will be the Rev. Clarence Gardner, assistant pastor of St. Dominic Church, Manchester.

Mrs. Frank McGuigan was chairman of the luncheon. Members were present from Geneva, Shortsville, and Manchester.
