Blessed Virgin Topic Heard At Luncheon

Hornell — An explanation of the espousal, marriage and virginity of the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph was given by the Rev. Vicent P. Collins at a First Saturday luncheon in the Moose Club.

FATHER COLLINS, assistant pastor of St. Anna Church, was principal speaker at the luncheon which was sponsored by the Steuben Deanery, Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, in honor of Our Lady of Fatima. There were more than 50 women present.

"Mary and Joseph had made a marriage contract, according to Hebrew espoussal custom, before the Angel Gabriel appeared to Mary to announce that she had been chosen by God to be the mother of the Messias," Father Collins said.

"Mary's response to the Angel Gabriel established without question that she was a virgin since she asked how she could become the mother of the Messias since she 'knew not man.'

"The Angel reassured Mary by telling her that the Holy Spirit would overshadow her, making it clear that the Holy One would be conceived in a supernatural manner.

"Just as we have known since the first century that Mary was a virgin before, during, and after the birth of Jesus, teachers of the Church also make it clear that St. Joseph must have taken a similiar vow of virginity."

"We can understand then since he knew of Mary's vow, how troubled he was to learn that she was with Child. According to Mosiac law, he had the privilege of putting her away and was considering what course of action to take when an angel appeared to him in a dream to tell him that Mary had conceived, by the power of the Holy Ghost, the Messias.

"Joseph immediately took Mary to his home, in accordance with the Hebrew marriage custom where we all know, they carried out God's plan for them with pure devotion," Father Collins concluded.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Lawrence W. Cannon, spiritual director of the Steuben Deanery, continued his suggestions for imitation of the virtues of the Blessed Mother. He referred, Saturday, to the Blessed Mother's losing the Child Christ in the temple.

"On the journey back from Jerusalem Our Lady, believing Jesus to be in the care of St. Joseph, devoted her interest to other relatives and friends in the group. For awhile, then she lost her Divine Son.

"Her loss was only in a physical way. We can lose Jesus in a much more serious way — in a spiritual sense — by leaving Him to the care of others, rather than making Him the first Object of our devotion.

"Resolve never to neglect Our Lord lest we too might lose Him from our lives," Msgr. Gannon concluded.

Miss Virginia Hussong presided at the luncheon in the absence of Mrs. Frank Hornbeck, president.

The next Saturday luncheon will be held April 6.

Book Reviews Heard History Recited For Hornell CDA Court

Hornell — Two book reviews and a history of their own organization were heard by members of Court St. Ann No. 194, Catholic Daughters of America at the last meeting.

The Catholic Daughters of America first court was organized in 1903 as the Daughters of Isabella by John E. Carberry supreme counselor. Knights of Columbus in Utica, Mrs. Mary A. Crandall, grand regent recalled

There were 60 orginal members. Mrs. Crandall said. In 1913 the organization became known as Catholic Daughters of America and in February of that year Court St. Ann of Hornell was organized. In 1921 the state headquarters was moved from Utica to New York City.

"Played By Ear," an autobiography by the late Rev. Daniel A. Lord S. J. was reviewed by Miss Virginia Hussong. She outlined the book, a series of letters summarzing various parts of Father Lord's life and interests.

Mrs. Margaret Husson reviewed "Profits in Courage" by Senator John F. Kennedy. She explained that the book is a collection of excerpts from lives of such outstanding statesmen as John Quincy Adams, Daniel Webster, Thomas Hart Benton, Sam Houston, Edmond G. Ross, George Morris, Lucius Lamar and Robert A. Taft.

The committee presented a display of Catholic books, pamphlets, leaflets and the Courier Journal, diocesan newspaper.

Luncheon followed, served by Mrs. Adele Boccia and Mrs. Josephine Argenteri, co-chairman and a large committee.

A collection for the Hornell High School Band uniforms netted $6.82.
