

44 To Be Received Into Sodality In Nazareth College Ceremony

Forty four members of the Nazareth College Sodality will be received into the Senior Sodality of Our Lady in a ceremony in the college auditorium, Thursday, March 21 at 3 p.m.

During the probationary period these students have met once a week since October for instruction by the Rev. William H. Shannon, chaplain, as well as with senior Sodality officers. Officers of the Junior Sodality are Marilyn McGowan, Utica, prefect; Dolores Ragusa, vice prefect; Marian Callan, secretary; Mary Cosgrove, Utica, treasurer. The counselors who have worked with the incoming sodalists are Kenise Murphy, Lilianna Leonardi, Carol Nelson, Maureen McLaughlin, Bette Gantert and Helen Closser.

College Celebration

NAZARETH COLLEGE will hold a St. Patrick's Celebration at 3:30 p.m. today, (Friday) in the college auditorium with Mary Jo Gleason of Auburn, left, and Elaine McAvoy, Geneva, as co-chairmen. Competitive class skits will be presented and prizes awarded. Students and friends are invited.

Keating Praises Courier Before U. S. Congress

Washington — (NC) — Rep. Kenneth B. Keating of New York said that Catholic publications in this country are filling a vital need for our population. He paid this tribute in a speech here before the House of Representatives.

Keating continued, "I can testify at first hand to the fine work being done by our Catholic press. The Courier-Journal, which ranks high among newspapers of this type, consistently supplies complete, accurate, and readable news of particular interest to the Catholic reader."

"Its editor, Msgr. John S. Randall, deserves praise for the way in which he has put into practice high standards of morality and journalism."

Msgr. Randall is president of the Catholic Press Association.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

Our reluctance to mortify ourselves during Lent comes from looking at the cross alone; that is, without understanding its inspiration. The cross alone is a sign of torture. Why then should we take on a cross? The Scriptures tell us the spirit in which Our Lord took it: "Let us fix our eyes on Jesus... Who to win the prize of blessedness, endured the cross and made light of its shame."

The joy to be won made light the bearing of the cross. It is the joy of being a doctor that inspires long years of study. When anyone does an heroic action at some cost to himself, he knows that though it costs, it counts. The highest reaches of joy in this world are those which have come from ministering to others through some denial of self.

We have never known anyone who began sacrificing a little each day to bring the faith to Africa or India who ever abandoned the practice. Because of the inner joy, they endured the cross. The man in St. Louis who whenever he orders food at a restaurant puts his hand over the menu and then orders the cheapest item does it just to have a few extra pennies at the end of the month for the Holy Father. His joy is greater than those who are clipping stock coupons to give themselves greater leisure.

Our Lord is indeed the Man of Sorrows but he alone supplies us with a joy that has a depth and a stillness beyond all giddiness and excitement. Why not give your soul a treat... Give up desserts during Lent and send what you save to the Holy Father. Your money goes to him for this is his Society for all the Missions of the world.

GOD LOVE YOU to the members of a young men's club for $50. "Because we feel that the good times we have in our club make it a duty to share our happiness with the poor of the world." ... to C. C. "While making out my phone bill I signed your name to the check by mistake—a happy mistake because the missions are $7.20 to the good." ... to D. S. "I've sold my best dress for $5 and send the same to you for the needy." ... to M. M. "My prayers were answered." ... to F. B. "Saved this $100. from pocket money this year. I'd like to put it in your bank—I like the interest rates."

As you switch on your TV set you are inviting the performers into your home. Why not introduce them to your whole family including of course Our Lady of Television. If you do not already have a statue of Our Lady of T.V. send us your request and we'll have a donation. Address: Order Dept. 366 Fifth Ave., New York 1, N.Y.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to the Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 336 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N. Y., or your Diocesan Director, Rev. George S. Wood, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.

Syracuse Man Resigns Job, Joins Brotherhood

Deciding to join a newly founded teaching brotherhood in Reno, Nev., Thomas E. Connolly, 50 of Syracuse resigned as executive secretary of the Onondaga County Health Association, a post he has held for nine years.

Connolly's wife, the former Marion Johnson, a public health nurse, died in 1953. His daughter, the former Marion P. Connolly, is now a Dominican nun stationed in Columbus, Ohio, and his sister is Sister Margaret Patrice, a teacher at St. Brendan School, Brooklyn.

A parishioner of St. Anthony of Padua Church, Syracuse, Connolly was active in a wide range of civic organizations. He served as secretary of the Onondaga Workshop for the Handicapped, and on the board of directors of the Onondaga Committee on Alcoholism.

A native of Flushing, Connolly resided in Syracuse for nine years. He is a graduate of Fordham University and did post-graduate work at Syracuse University. Prior to World War II, he served for 12 years on the staff of the New York State Parole Board.

Connolly, who has disposed of his home here and other belongings, said that he expected to teach high school students when he joins the Reno Brotherhood.

Hungarian Family Makes Home in Clifton Springs

Clifton Springs — Through the sponsorship of the Clifton Springs Rotary Club, a Hungarian family, Istvan, Toth, 27, with his wife and two children, Stephen, 2, and Irene, 3 months, and Lazo Varnos, 22, also from Hungary, have arrived to make their home in Clifton Springs.

Toth, a mechanic is employed at the G. W. Lisk Co. and Varnos is employed at the Clifton Springs Sanitarium and Clinic.

Equipping a four-room apartment for the family at 35 Pleasant St. turned into a community project with all furniture contributed as well as money for clothing, food and rent for one month. The family of four had walked across the Hungarian border when their youngest child was four months old and had formerly lived in one room.

Mrs. Kornelia Marshall, wife of the President of the Hungarian Club in Rochester, who came to the United States in 1945 from Hungary, has been serving as interpreter for the group since their arrival.

Arrangements have been made through the Clifton Springs Central School for Miss Margaret Genis, school elementary supervisor, to work with Mrs. Marshall in teaching English to the new residents.

Rotarians I. A. Morris, John Fabrizi and Dr. Stephen Brouwer served as the committee in charge of the project to bring the newcomers to the village with arrangements handled by the National Catholic Welfare Center, Rochester.

The committee also has arranged for the Hungarians to attend the Hungarian American School conducted each Sunday afternoon at St. Patrick Church, Rochester.

How to Judge a Nursing Home

1. How does the neighborhood look? Is there a place to sit outdoors?
2. Is the home covered by Hospital Trained Staff around the clock?
3. How many men and women are on the staff? What training have they had? Is there one employee for every five patients?
4. Does each bedroom contain a bedside table, lamp, easy chair, drawer space, closet, bureau beside the bed? Are residents permitted personal possessions?
5. Are the bath facilities adequate? Are there non-slip materials on bathroom floors and stairways, handrails beside tubs and showers?
6. Is there an automatic fire alarm, extinguishers?
7. Are patients neatly dressed? What kind of expression do you see on their faces? Do they participate in any activities? How do they spend an average day? Are the ambulatory patients separated from the bed-ridden?
8. How do the menus compare with what your parent has been eating? What's the kitchen like? Is tray service available for bed patients?
9. Can patients have personal physicians?
10. What are the rules of admission, visiting, delivery and dispatch of mail? What is the basic cost?
