Careers For Women Display Shown At Nazareth College

Careers open to college women is the subject of a display of vocational literature at Nazareth College during the month of March. This is part of the program of career planning under the direction of Sister Eva Marie, placement director.

Sister Eva Marie will speak to the sophomore class today on planning for the future and will plan to interview during March underclassmen who want assistance in deciding on their vocational goal.

SPECIAL EMPHASIS in the college career counseling program is direction toward those fields which offer opportunities for mature women who may return to employment for various reasons some years after graduation.

During March representatives of various organizations employing college women will visit the campus, including James Dougherty of the Central Intelligence Unit, International Business Machines and Harold Hacker, Director of the Rochester Public Library, as well as principals and superintendents of various central schools in western New York.
