BEST STUDENT NURSES in Elmira, Miss Gaynelle Tuttle, of Arnot Ogdon Memorial Hospital (left) and Miss Mary Congdon, of St. Joseph Hospital will represent their schools in state contest.

Student Nurses To Vie For 'Best' Title In State

Selected as the best Student Nurses of Elmira School of Nursing, Miss Gaynelle Tuttle of Arnot Ogdon Memorial Hospital and Miss Mary Congdon of St. Joseph's Hospital will represent their schools in a contest to choose the best Student Nurse in New York State. This contest is sponsored by New York State Student Nurses Association as one of its projects to stimulate interest in student nurses and in the education of girls for a nursing career. Miss Tuttle and Miss Congdon were selected by a Committee of fellow students, Faculty member and hospital member on the basis of their scholarship, professional ability, leadership qualities, integrity, personality and participation in student activities.

THE GIRLS will now compete against representatives from St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell and Alfred University for the honor of best student nurse in Area 11 of the State Student Nurses' Association. Area 11 is a geographical section of the State that has these four schools of Nursing. The best student nurse in Area 11 will compete against the best student nurses from other Areas in the State. There are about 15 areas. Miss Congdon, a Junior at the Arnot Ogdon Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Tuttle of Erin, N.Y. Miss Congdon, a Junior at St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Congdon of 38-4 Fairview Ave., Hornell. She has also been chosen as a School representative to the National Student Nurses Association Convention to be held in Chicago, Ill. in May, 1957.
