Sisters To Attend Counselors Meet

Three Sisters of St. Joseph will attend the 22nd annual conference of the New York State Counselors Association in Hotel Syracuse, Syracuse, March 24 to 26.

They are: Sister Anacletus and Sister Grace Regina of Nazareth Academy and Sister Stella Regina of Ithaca.

Purpose of the 1937 conference is to establish relationships between counseling and what transpires with students in elementary, junior or senior high school, or college and in adult vocations.

Program calls for panel and round table discussions using professional guidance workers, administrators, teachers, parents and students.

Capri Club Elects

CYO-Capri Club elected the following officers at a St. Patrick's day party: Margaret Leun, president; Sam Vetromile, vice-president; Marie Wegman, secretary; and Jane Dobby, treasurer.

Installation will take place on March 31 at a Communion breakfast following the 9:30 a.m. Mass at St. Mary Church. The breakfast will be at Antonios, 51 Elm St. Reservations may be made by calling Marie Wegman, CL 30791 by Wednesday, March 27.

Kruman, who are engaged to be married August 3 in St. Alphonsus Church, one of the many couples who have registered for the course; and Rev. Leo Jones, pastor of St. Joseph Church, Weedsport, moderator.

Pre-Marriage Course Opens

Auburn — Tenth annual marriage course was opened in Auburn on Monday, March 18 by the Rev. Albert J. Shannon. Sponsored by the Cayuga Diocese of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, the course has been arranged under the guidance of the Rev. Leo A. Jones, deanery moderator, and pastor of St. Joseph Church, Weedsport.

A rearranging of the schedule of the talks brings Dr. Robert J. Schaffer of Auburn as the speaker on Monday, March 23 on "The Medical Aspects of Marriage."

Mrs. James O'Donnell, chairman of the committee on family and parent education, which is in charge of the course, is chairman of the series with Mrs. Joseph L. Barry, co-chairman. Mrs. Veronica M. Smith, deanery president, Mrs. Carmen Pacelli, Mrs. Herbert L. House, Mrs. Leonard A. Green, Mrs. Andrew Zerby, Mrs. Rocco D. Malvaso, and Miss Genevieve E. Dihil are members of the committee.

Carmel Ladies Club Lists Father Shannon

The Rev. William Shannon, diocesan director of music, and of radio-television and press relations for the Diocese of Syracuse, will be the guest speaker at the Carmel Ladies Club meeting Monday, March 25. Before entering upon his studies for the priesthood at the age of 25, Father Shannon had attained success as a radio singer and program director.

While a student at Manhattan College he continued in radio work, made recordings and did several screen shorts. He was graduated from Manhattan in 1929 as valedictorian.

Continuing his studies for the priesthood at St. Bernard Seminary in Rochester, Father Shannon was ordained in 1943 in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Syracuse, where he is currently assigned as an assistant.

Through the years, Father Shannon has been remembered in the entertainment world as the "discoverer" of several prominent stage and screen personalities, among them Bill Lundigan, Denning Day, Gordon McRae and the song-writer Jimmy VanHeusen.

The guest will be introduced by the principal of Mt. Carmel High School, the Rev. Brendan Hourihan, O. Carm.

Preceding the speech there will be a covered dish supper. All members are urged to attend and guests will be welcome. There will be no telephone calls to remind members of the meeting, according to an announcement of the club officers.

Scouting Committee Elects New Officers

Anthony J. Cortuguglia was elected chairman of the Catholic committee on scouting which met recently at St. Alphonsus School and approved a program of activities for the year.

Other officers elected are: Jull an L. Wright, secretary; Francis McGarry, treasurer; and John F. Alissandro, publicity chairman. The Rev. Robert G. Kreckel is area chaplain.

Members of the committee are: Leo Krzyzak, William Cornall, Frank DePauli, Anthony Fliducia, Robert J. Wilson, Ted Bielowiec, Sid Burridge, William D. Laney, Thomas Quigley, Leo Green, Louis Cirrincione, Victor Favasull and David Rumph.

Presentation of the certificates to the first two steps towards the attainment of the award will be made May 12 at St. Alphonsus Church. Plans were also discussed for the annual retreat scheduled for Camp Rotary on Owasco Lake.

Junior Mercy Guild Elects First Slate

The newly formed Junior Mercy Guild of Mercy Hospital has elected Ann Healey president. Other officers chosen were: Mary Alice Costello, vice-president; Mary Ellen Anderson, secretary, and Patricia Herring, treasurer.

Installation of officers will take place at a supper meeting in April. Planning the supper are Dale McDonald, Sue Stevens, Sandra Tehan and Diane Nolan.

Good Shepherd Guild Lists Report, Plans

Good Shepherd Guild will meet Monday evening, March 25, at 8 p.m. at the Hotel Seneca. The president, Miss Alice Moreland will preside.

On the evening's agenda will be a final report on the success of the membership drive by the drive chairman, Mrs. Francis G. Wagner. A nominating committee will be appointed. Plans for the summer walk to be held April 5 at 192 West Main St. will be presented by the sale chairman, Mrs. Glen R. Perkins.

After the business meeting, Miss Helen O'Hanigan, Program Chairman, will introduce Mrs. Edward J. Matrone, who will view "The Last Crusader," by Louis de Wohl.
