Retiring Head Nurse Feted By Friends

Tributes to Miss Ann Hebler, retiring head nurse in St. Joseph Hospital, were paid at a dinner in her honor at the Party House, Wednesday, March 20.

One hundred eighty-seven of her friends, including staff doctors, nurses, former co-workers and personnel from all departments of the hospital were present to give recognition to this nurse who since her graduation in 1921 has served the hospital. Dr. Joseph P. Henry, hospital chaplain, Dr. J. William Johnston and Miss Mary Sartlan, supervisor of the outpatient department, and long time friends expressed commendations. Her patients have always been the first thought, as the many thousands who have been under her care would testify, as well as the doctors who have worked with her through the years. Dr. Henry said.

Rochester Student Among Top Ten

Thomas A. Hoffman, 80 Merwin Ave., Rochester, was one of ten Villanova University students who received perfect scholastic averages during the first semester of the 1956-57 academic year according to the dean's list of honor students announced this week.

The list, released by the Rev. Thomas A. Burke, O.S.A., director of admissions, disclosed that Hoffman and nine others among nearly 4,000 students recorded perfect 4.0 marks for the fall term. Hoffman, a 1956 graduate of Aquinas Institute is a freshman at Villanova. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoffman. Three other Rochester students achieved mention on the dean's list which requires an average of 3.0 in all studies. Students listed were George A. Ilalian, Jr., 95 Le Grant Road, John T. Regan, 155 Cottage St., Charles B. Ross, Jr., 83 Park Rd.
