

Holy Week At Cathedral, Other Churches, Listed

Catholic churches throughout the Rochester Diocese are set for impressive annual Holy Week rituals. Pastors this week are preparing parishioners for blessing and distribution to the people at Sunday Masses. Many parishes have scheduled special Holy Week retreats to climax with the unique ceremonies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil.

HIGHLIGHT of Holy Week of services will be at Sacred Heart Cathedral, "Mother Church" of the Diocese. Bishop James E. Kearney and Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence E. Casey will preside at the dramatic rites in the Rochester Cathedral.

Ceremonies at the Cathedral and in all parish churches will follow the pattern established last year by Pope Pius XII restoring the rituals to their original schedule and simpler form. In accord with the Pope's vision, all the people are urged to take an active part in the rites, responding to the priest's prayers and receiving Holy Communion.

BISHOP KEARNEY will celebrate the Mass of the Christ Holy Thursday at 9 a.m. to bless the holy oils used throughout the Diocese for baptism, confirmation, ordination, and extreme unction. Communion will be given at this Mass and the other Holy Thursday Masses as listed below. Solemn Mass of the Last Supper will be celebrated by Bishop Casey at 7:45 p.m., Holy Thursday evening.

He will also preside at Good Friday's liturgy commemorating Christ's sufferings and death at 2:30 p.m., and celebrate the first Mass of Easter at midnight on Holy Saturday.

OTHER SPECIAL SERVICES scheduled by Bishop Casey at the Cathedral include Mass at 5:30 p.m. Monday and Tuesday of Holy Week, Holy Thursday Low Masses at 7 a.m. and 5:30 p.m., Father Gereon Lindsay, O.F.M. Cap., will conduct a Holy Week retreat opening Wednesday at 7:15 p.m. He will also preach Good Friday at 2:10 p.m. and at Holy Saturday's midnight Mass.

Stations of the Cross will be held Good Friday at 1:45 p.m. and 7:45 p.m.

CONFESSIONS will be heard Monday through Wednesday at 7 to 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 to 5:45 p.m.; Thursday at 4:30 to 6 p.m. and after the evening Mass; Friday after evening services; and Saturday, 3:30 to 6 p.m., and 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Services during Holy Week at other churches as submitted, this week, are:
