

Vocation Need Explained To Geneva Parish Group

Geneva — Mrs. James W. Walker was re-elected president of St. Stephen Rosary Society at a meeting and election of officers in the school hall. Other officers re-elected are: Mrs. Maurice Buckley, vice-president; Mrs. Lloyd Poole, recording secretary; and Mrs. Thomas McNerney, financial secretary.

Rev. John Leary of Rochester spoke on Vocations. Father Leary told of the priesthood in particular and outlined the requirements, background, intelligence, and spiritual inclination necessary for a candidate to the priesthood.

He described the daily life in the major seminaries, the courses of study pursued, and the joy and satisfaction of the priestly life.

Father Leary declared that Geneva is well represented on the faculty of St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, today by native Genevans or by priests who have served in the local parishes.

The society will sponsor a public card party in the school hall on April 24. Mrs. Robert Breslin and Mrs. William Parker are co-chairmen.

The society will prepare a dinner Wednesday, April 10, for the Newmen Club of Hobart and William Smith colleges. The dinner will be served in the school hall after the club members attend Mass and receive Holy Communion in St. Stephen Church.

Mrs. Arthur T. McAvoy is chairman. Next meeting of the Society will be held May 1 when Monsignor Joseph Sullivan of Ovid will be guest speaker. There will also be an investiture service for new members.

St. Stephen HN Unit Schedules Breakfast Geneva — St. Stephen's Holy Name Society will hold a Communion breakfast on Sunday, April 14, in the school hall.

Members will receive Communion in a group at the 7 a. m. Mass, in St. Stephen's Church. A special feature of the meeting will be a showing of a film on the Vatican.
