

13 Diocesan Students Receive Honors At Area Science Congress

Thirteen students from Rochester and one from Geneva were accorded honors at the Central Western Zone Science Congress held Saturday, April 6, at Brockport State Teachers College with 600 entrants participating.

Ten young scientists from Aquinas Institute won honors. Two of the boys received first place ribbons and were chosen to present their demonstrations before the entire assembly.

John Honan won first place in "Earth Science" for his illustrated talk on the "Age of Reptiles". In the chemistry division first place went to Vincent Wissman and his assistant, Bob Phillips, for a talk and demonstration on "Titration".

Honorable mentions were received by the following: Tom Ledoux, in physics; Sam LoBiondo, and Dennis Merrit, in biology; Mike Russo, Paul Gerszeny, Richard Wilson and Robert Hartner in chemistry.

The Rev. John Wilson, C.S.B., head of the department of science and the Rev. James Cross, C.S.B., professor of biology, sponsored the student exhibits.

'Vocation Day' Marked By Parish

HOLY FAMILY PARISH, Rochester held a successful Vocation Day, Sunday with special prayers and activities to foster vocations. Here the Rev. Dr. Joseph L. ### Anne Culkin Of TV To Give Personality Course At College

Miss Anne Culkin, nationally known lecturer and TV personality, will be at Nazareth College on April 15, 16 and 17, to present her course "Personality Development for Women" to the student body.

Designed to develop the qualities of leadership and self-assurance which college women need in modern society, the Anne Culkin course has all the appeal of the fashionable charm school, but it is different — it is designed by a Catholic college graduate to demonstrate how young women can apply the principles of Christian charity with grace and tact to their everyday living, the announcement said.

The course will include talks on how to improve personal appearance, club organizational techniques, social graces, how to be a popular hostess and a charming guest, and how to be a good conversationalist, as well as how to express yourself in public.

Miss Culkin is a graduate of Marywood College and the Alviene Dramatic School, New York City. She was the Society Editor of the Air on WSGR and

Third Order To Meet

Third Order Secular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel will meet at Our Lady of Victory (Little French) Church, April 14 at 3 p.m. An invitation is extended to all who are interested in tertiary life.

Profession ceremonies will take place at the meeting. Those who have persevered during the required year's novitiate and are worthy to be professed will be asked by the chapter director, "What do you seek?" to which they will reply, "I seek the mercy of God and the privilege of being professed in the Third Order of the Most Blessed Mary of Mount Carmel."

The director will then ask, "Will you be able to observe the rule and the manner of life which it prescribes?" Those to be professed will answer, "Relying on the grace of God and the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, I will strive to observe it." This begins the ceremony to enable those who desire to embrace for life the rule they have faithfully observed during the past year.

Annual Retreat Set At Nazareth

Annual retreat for 1232 students at Nazareth Academy will be conducted by two Passionist Fathers during Holy Week, Apr. 15, 16 and 17 according to the Rev. Charles B. Connell, chaplain.

The Rev. Andrew Ansbro, C.P., who conducted the senior retreat in 1955 will again be in charge of the seniors. The Rev. Donald Keenan, C.P., of Toronto will direct the undergraduates. He has given numerous high school retreats and parish missions. Among them was the mission held at Sacred Heart Cathedral last two weeks.

Students were advised that "even for those who are blessed with a strong faith it is important to find a brief pause from routine to renew within themselves the spiritual perspective which is so easy to lose and which alone can give worthwhile meaning to life."

Aquinas Student To Preside At Meeting

Michael Spellman, Aquinas Institute senior and chairman of the junior health committee of the Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County will preside when student representatives of Monroe high schools review problems of juvenile delinquency at the April meeting.

The program is scheduled for Wednesday, April 17 at 7:30 p. m. at 973 East Ave.

Judge Thomas J. Meagher, director of the New York State Youth Commission will speak and lead a roundtable discussion on the work of the commission and proposed youth courts.

MISS JUDY BROWN, freshman at DeSales High School, Geneva was one of the winners. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Brown, 29 DeLancey Dr.

Judy was an entry in the 9th year general science group and one of three winners from a group of 125 entries, on the topic: "Aquarium Genetics."

Sister Helen Cecilia of DeSales High School was one of the judges from this area. Forty-five young people attended the Science Congress from Geneva.

THREE ENTRIES from St. Thomas School, Brockport, were honored at the exhibition. An exhibit on the synthesis of palmitic invertase was submitted by Robert Partie and Kenneth Phelshifter.

Joseph Laurer built a small radio. Albert Smith and Guy D'Ambrosia worked together on a miniature model of the process of paper making. The boys are seventh grade students at St. Thomas, which was the only Catholic grammar school represented at the congress. The Science Congress was one of the largest in the history of the organization with over 500 entries.
