St. Theresa Boy Wins Grant To Franciscan School

John Muldock of St. Theresa of the Child Jesus School, Mark St., Rochester won a four year scholarship to St. Francis High School, Athol Springs, N. Y., it was announced at the school, today.

The $1,600 scholarship will cover room, board and tuition for four years. The boy's ambition is to be a candidate for the priesthood.

Born in Poland, Jan. 27, 1943, the son of John and Leocadia Muldock, of 9 Loomis St., the boy came to America in 1950. He entered St. Theresa School in March of 1951.

He is an altar boy at St. Theresa's and is interested in stamp collecting and photography. His teacher's name is Sister Mary Mildred.

Scholarship Winner

Rev. James E. Barnett, S.J., rector of McQuaid High School, congratulates Thomas Laymac of St. Margaret Mary Parish, who is the winner of the full four year scholarship to McQuaid. Partial scholarships were also awarded to James Jones of St. Thomas Parish and John Mooney of St. Anne Parish.

Academy Slates Junior Prom

Nazareth Academy will present its annual Junior Prom at the Collegiate Club Monday, April 22. Dancing will be from 9 to 12 to the music of Jack Nunn and his orchestra.

Profits will help to finance the school newspaper, The Gabriel. In accordance with the theme, "Almost Paradise," an Oriental garden setting will be featured. A king and queen will be named to reign over the prom. Choice of sovereigns will depend upon the chance drawing of a ticket from the box. This method was decided upon in preference to voting before hand. Juniors decided that a popularity vote was not desirable and also that the surprise element added to enjoyment and interest.

Committees and their chairmen are as follows: Gail Bilecki, general chairman; Sally Burmaster, tickets; Kathleen Elam and Alice McKay, publicity; Nancy Murphy, special arrangements; Ann Chlmera, refreshments; Patricia McDonald, decorations; Carolyn DeVonis, checking, and Mary Lou Slomczewski, cleanup.

Jenny Bowling Contest Finals

Finals of the Jenny Bowling Contest will get underway Saturday, April 20 at the Jefferson Bowling Academy in Syracuse, when nine 5-man and four 3-woman teams converge on the "Jenny 5" team of Rochester.

The tournament starts at 7 p.m. when the 13 teams will hit the kegel lanes in a three-game handicap match to determine the "Jenny" Champion.

The team beating the Rochester quintet by the highest gross score will become the "Jenny" Champs and will take home $1,000 in cash. The team scoring the second highest gross total over the "Jenny 5" scratch total will win $500. All other teams beating the Genesee boys will be awarded $200, and no team will go home with less than $100.

Sunday Ballgames To Be Broadcast

A "play ball" theme highlighted contract signing ceremonies this week between Station WJET and Lincoln Rochester Trust Company. The bank will sponsor the first games of the Sunday afternoon Red Wing schedule this season.
