Crowds Visit Bavaria Town To See Suffering Stigmatic

Konnersreuth, Germany—(NC)—(Radio)—Over 3,000 visitors, many of them clergymen, crowded this tiny Bavarian village on Good Friday to witness Our Lord's Passion las experienced by the Stigmatic Theresa Neumann.

The motivation of an overwhelming majority, of the people was clearly spiritual.

As on previous Good Fridays, Theresa suffered the agonies of the Crucifixion for several hours.

Father Joseph Naber, the village pastor and her confessor, addressed the pilgrims briefly or the deep spiritual meaning of Theresa's sufferings which, said, should make all the faithful realize that they must be cross-bearers during their lives.
