

Mother's Day

My wife is rough time. I house now be just learned thant again. We ren already ar that's all there least for a wh her present con fault! She's go to live with fo months. What husband do? I able to suppo I'm getting tirr pose as a victi have some obli

THE FAM which you des apparently be common in v called the A class. More pr acterizes those or who have class.

It is not ea because it stei plex set of at understandings contemporary clarify our thi alize these in

First, there about the m nage Marriag looked upon companionship way it is def jortly of text writing, and mind

But marriag mere compan its very natur with a purpo is parenthod

Parenthod incidental to matter of cho in the very r companionship. man and wo productive a true significa provide for it development tion lies in character

The compa hard and wil real fulfillm childbearing process.

SECOND, fusion about in in marri

Priest's Influence Revealed In 'Sugar Ray's' Fight Role

Chicago—(RNS)—A Franciscan priest cheered Sugar Ray Robinson on to victory in his middleweight world champion bout with Gene Fullmer.

He is the Rev. Jovian Lang, O.F.M., who describes "Sugar" as "one of the best-oriented spiritual men that I know."

"He has great resignation to God's will and knows and appreciates God's part in every thing," Father Lang said.

THE PRIEST, a speech instructor at St. Joseph's Seminary, Westmont, Ill., met Robinson in April, 1955, during a train ride from Chicago to Milwaukee.

Robinson was on his way to his fight with Ted Ojka. That was the first time Father Lang ever saw Robinson fight, and win.

Since then, the priest has been at the ringside for every one of Robinson's fights, except the first one with Fullmer. Robinson won them all except the first Fullmer match.

In that fight Fullmer, a Mormon, had Ezra Benson, U.S. Secretary of Agriculture and one of the Twelve Apostles of the Church of Christ of Latter-day Saints, rooting in his corner.

Will Robinson become a Catholic? "He hasn't mentioned it and I haven't asked him," said Father Lang.

Spanish Envoy Madrid—(RNS)—Francisco Gomez de Llano, former Minister of Finance, has been named Ambassador from Spain to the Vatican, it was announced here.

Is The President In?

When it was said that parish census workers would visit every dwelling within the boundaries of the archdiocese of Washington, D. C., it meant just that to Joe Coyne (left) and Larry Lee of St. Matthew's Cathedral parish, as they call on the home of the President of the U. S. President Eisenhower was out of town at the time, but they were greeted at the gate by White House guard Francis Schuring.

'Grace Prayer Unconstitutional'

Pupils Can't Thank God For Lunch

Fresno, Calif.—(RNS)—Grace before-meals in public schools violates state constitutional provisions prohibiting the teaching of religion in the schools, Fresno County Counsel Robert Wash ruled here.

At the same time he said he will leave it up to school authorities to make their own decisions in borderline cases.

The opinion was given in answer to a question by the Lone Star School District board of trustees.

GRACE-BEFORE-meals is not said in public school cafeterias of this area. However, a number of public schools use a brief verse prayer or song before milk and crackers are served to kindergarten children. This is believed one of the borderline cases referred to by Mr. Wash.

One of the most common verse prayers used in kindergarten classes reads: Thank you for the world so sweet, Thank you for the food we eat, Thank you for the birds that sing, Thank you, God, for everything.

"I don't think Mr. Wash meant to include the little formal prayer taught kindergarten children," said Paul B. Reall, the Lone Star District superintendent. "After reading his opinion, I took it to mean there was no application in such a case."

MR. REALL said the question of grace before meals first was posed by children in the lower grades of the school who inquired why a prayer was not said before lunch as it had been before crackers and milk when they were in kindergarten.

A discussion of religion in public school followed at a school board meeting where Mr. Reall was authorized to seek a legal opinion.

Charles Carpenter, an administrative assistant to Fresno City Schools Superintendent Edwin C. Kraft, said he considered the kindergarten verse prayer part of manners and morals and spiritual values which schools are required to teach.

"I think it would be stretching the interpretation of the opinion to say such practices are violations," he said.

IN HIS OPINION Mr. Wash said invocations, benedictions and grace before meals can be permitted in schoolroom meetings of parent-teacher associations and other organizational affiliated with a school.

Such acts, he said, are more analogous to those which take place in legislative halls and during court sessions where meetings composed of adults shouldering heavy responsibilities are entitled to call upon their God for guidance.

Former Mayor Offers First Mass

Park City, Utah—(NC)—A one-time mayor of this community of some 3,000 persons has offered his first Solemn Mass here in his parish church, St. Mary of the Assumption.

Father Harry DeJonghe was Park City's mayor during 1944 and 1945. When elected he was only 25 years old.

The day before he offered Mass here, Father DeJonghe was ordained by Bishop Duan G. Hunt of Salt Lake City in the Cathedral of the Madeleine here.

House Unit OK's Sales Tax Cut To Parochial Schools

Washington—(NC)—The House Ways and Means Committee has given final approval to a bill that would grant exemption from Federal excise taxes to private and parochial non-profit schools and colleges.

This is one of about 60 revisions in excise tax regulations that would be made by the legislation which came out of a series of hearings conducted by a Ways and Means subcommittee headed by Rep. Alme Forand of Rhode Island.

There was no definite indication how soon the House will act on the bill.

IF CARRIED into law, the provision relating to private and parochial schools would according to committee estimate, mean $10 million a year. They now pay the Federal taxes on many items they purchase, as well as on some communication and transportation costs.

Public schools have not paid the levies for many years because they are considered units of local government and as such are exempt.

Rep. Forand began the movement to exempt private schools during his subcommittee's hearings. He said it was unfair to tax these schools and exempt public schools.

EXCISE TAXES, sometimes called sales taxes, must be paid by the schools on items such as schoolbuses, typewriters, cabinets and desks as well as on telephone calls and the costs of transporting school groups or school-officials traveling in behalf of their institution.

The Treasury Department is opposing all proposed revenue cuts.

A spokesman for Protestants and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State (POAU) admitted the exemption would be a "tiny concession," but charged it might lead to what he called "a more serious erosion of the principle of church-state separation."

Bishop Ready Dies, Studied In Rochester

Columbus, Ohio—(NC)—Archbishop Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the U.S., offered a Pontifical Requiem Mass in St. Joseph's Cathedral here Wednesday (May 8) for Bishop Michael J. Ready of Columbus who died (May 2) of a cerebral hemorrhage.

THE BISHOP, who was 64, was stricken in the Chancery Office and died a few hours later in the hospital. Auxiliary Bishop Edward G. Heiting of Columbus has been named the new administrator of the diocese.

Bishop Ready made his studies for the priesthood at St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, and at St. Mary's Seminary, Cleveland. He was ordained in 1918 for the diocese of Cleveland.

Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit, was present at the Mass, and Archbishop Karl J. Alter of Cincinnati preached. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery here.

After 13 years service in the Cleveland Diocese, Bishop Ready went to Washington in 1931 as assistant general secretary of the National Catholic Welfare Conference. He was named general secretary of the NCWC in 1936 and held the post until his appointment as Bishop of Columbus in November, 1944.

BISHOP READY

Bishop Ritter Opposes City Ban In Jewish Chapel

(NC)—A nearby city's refusal to issue a permit for a Jewish chapel brought a protest here which violated the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution.

Joseph E. Ritter of the Catholic Federation of the City of Creve Coeur, Mo., said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

He said the city's action was "a gross violation of the first and 14th Amendments of the Constitution."

RUND'S THE HOUSE OF GOOD FOOD 48 South Ave.

Take Mother out To Dinner

Mother's Day Sunday, May 12

—And it's ALWAYS RUND'S with folks that prefer the finest!

Thank You For Making RUND'S Rochester's Most Popular DINNER SPOT!

Reservations might be wise—Hamilton 6-1750

Western New York's Most Famous Oyster Bar

RUND'S STEAK and SEA FOOD RESTAURANT 48 South Avenue

GIFTS! GRAND PRIZE! DAILY DOOR PRIZES!

at the Opening Celebration of our NEW MAIN ST. WEST OFFICE MAIN AT FITZHUGH May 13 thru May 17

GRAND PRIZE: A beautiful Emerson Portable TV-Phonorec.

YOUR CHOICE when you open a savings account of $19 or more: TAYLOR DESK THERMOMETER OR CALENDAR MEMO PAD DOOR PRIZES EACH DAY: An Emerson AL Transistor Pocket Radio given each day for 5 days.

We have a new bank building to show you—and what a bank it is! It's spacious and modern inside and out, with the latest facilities to make saving a pleasure! It's open Monday, May 13, so stop in, look around, get your FREE gift and your ticket for the valuable door prizes.

Come In! See this beautiful new bank building!

ROCHESTER Savings Bank

40 Franklin St. • 47 Main St. West • 1775 Clinton Ave. NE. MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

B. Forman Co.

this week only SALE!

our famous "474" SEAMLESS NYLONS

regularly 1.50 pair

1.00

3 pairs, 2.85

6 pairs, 5.60

• fine micro-mesh with reinforced heel and toe!

• beautiful new summer shades!

• save 3.40 on 6 lovely pairs!

• stock up for you, for Mother's Day

Wonderful flattery for summer — the bare-leg look of fine micro-mesh, seam-free nylons! Forman-priced for savings just in time for your own summer needs, for Mother's Day gifts! And see these luscious new colors: White Lilac, pale sultan; Pink Lilac, deep sultan; Mauve Lilac, neutral taupe tone. Medium length only, sizes 8 1/2 to 11. Sale ends Saturday so hurry in!

HOSIERY, FORMAN'S STREET FLOOR also Forman's Culver-Ridge