MOTHER-DAUGHTER tea sponsored by the Fremlin Mission Unit at Nazareth College will be held Sunday, May 12 from 3 to 6 p.m. Preparing for the event are Seana Monaghan, prefect, (left) and Janice Egan, chairman.

Nazareth College Girls To Honor Mothers Sunday

A formal tea in honor of mothers of Nazareth College students will be held on Mother's Day (Sunday, May 12) from 3 to 6 p.m. in Medaille Hall on the college campus.
For some years, Nazareth has had a father-daughter banquet on its social calendar, but this is the first formal entertainment for the mothers.
A musical program will be given by the students, and mothers will have an opportunity to tour the campus and to meet the faculty.
A feature of this program will be the singing by a choral group of an original Ave Maria by Anna-Jean DeDominolis, senior music student. Miss DeDominolis whose home is in Watkins Glen, is president of the Resident Students Association.
Honorary chairman is Seana Monaghan of Canandaigua, prefect of the Fremlin Mission Unit, sponsoring the tea. General chairman is Janice Egan, of Waukegan, Wis.
Assisting are: reception, Miss Monaghan and members of the executive board of the Fremlin Mission Unit; entertainment, Helen Suits of Watkins Glen, and Lillian Leonard of Fulton; decorations, Jacqueline and Patricia Gabel; publicity, Margaret Galavotti of Canastota, Mary Jo Gleason of Auburn, and Cathy Wieg; tickets, Bernadine Carroll of Newark.
