Geneva KC. Council Hears Assemblyman

Geneva - Geneva Council, Inights of Columbus heard Assemiblyman Robert Quigley describe the operation of the state legislature at the annual Communion breakfast last Sunday at Hotel Seneca.

More than 125 members attended the 7 a. m. Mass at St. Stephan Church prior to the breakfast.

Past Grand Knight Michael McDonald, chairman, introduced Arthur J. Cowan, former president of the Common Council. He in turn introduced visiting K of C officials and Assemblyman Quigley.

In the course of his remarks Quigley pointed out the work done by state legislators through the operation of joint legislative committees. These groups meet throughout the year, even when the legislature is not in session he explained.
