New School For Religion Opened In Williamson

Ontario — St. Mary's of the Lake Parish entertained at an Open House for the official opening of the Church School at Maple Avenue and Prospect Street, Williamson on Sunday, May 5.

The afternoon was climaxed by the impressive blessing of the Crucifix ceremony.

The Rev. Albert Schnacky, Diocesan Director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, was Bishop Kearney's personal representative. He was assisted by the Rev. William Lammers, pastor, Epiphany Church, Solus, and Rev. James O'Connell, pastor, St. Mary's of the Lake, Ontario.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joseph Jablonski, Mrs. David Cook and Miss Shirley Neydt.

Members of the reception committee, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willis Barrett, Elmer Roets, Anthony Peppe, Dan Monahan and Dick Burroff gave commemorative holy cards to each guest as he entered. The Rev. James O'Connell, pastor, St. Mary's of the Lake, Ontario, and Mrs. Lawrence Kirk directed visitors through the classroom. There are 81 pupils from Williamson Central School in the Monday and Tuesday classes taught by Father O'Connell and three lay teachers. The classes will be larger next year because the building is now serving as a social center for 130 families in the Williamson area.

Father O'Connell and Mrs. Leaty, general chairmen, asked to thank every one of the many people who helped from this first moment important step in religious education was planned.
