Girl Scouts Visit Capuchin Seminary

Geneva — A hike . . . a visit to the Capuchin Seminary . . . and a picnic lunch. All were on the agenda of the Intermediate Troop 30 Girl Scouts of St. Stephen School, Saturday. The hike was the last requirement for their second class badge.

A stop-over was made at the seminary on Lochland Rd., where the scouts were taken on an escorted tour of the building and grounds by Father Christopher.

The scouts were accompanied by their leaders Mrs. Anthony Annony and Mrs. Leo. Kelly. Mothers assisting were Mrs. Gerald Jason, Mrs. Jack Dougherty and Mrs. Aubert Killigrew. Mr. Anthony also helped with the picnic arrangements.

Mary's Day Rites Held In Newark

Newark—Rosary Altar Society of St. Michael Church, Newark, observed Mary's Day on Sunday, May 19 with members, led by the Rev. H. J. Doerbecker, pastor and moderator, forming a Living Rosary.

Because of the inclement weather, the ceremony annually held on the church lawn, took place in the church.

Members moved in procession from the hall to the church where the Rosary was recited. During the singing of the Hymn "Mother Dearest, Mother Fairest", which followed, little Susan Healy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Healy, and a member of the First Communion Class, placed a bouquet of white carnations on the altar of our Blessed Lady.

Father Doerbecker led the group in the Act of Consecration and the ceremony closed with Benediction celebrated by Father Doerbecker assisted by Father James Cosgrove, assistant pastor of St. Michael's.

Chairman of Mary's Day was Mrs. C. DeRycke.
