

Knights Hold Annual Review At Memorial

Knights of St. John held its annual review in the Community War Memorial Sunday with more than 1,000 persons in attendance. Eleven commanderies and three auxiliaries were reviewed by Judge Advocate Norbert Abend of Syracuse. Included in the review were the two current national drill champions, Mt. Carmel Commandery and St. Boniface Auxiliary. The units were judged on attendance, appearance and drills with the top teams to receive trophies June 22 at the annual field Mass in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Next year's national convention of the Knights of St. John, the first here in 18 years, will be held June 28 through July 3.

Adult Sodality To Hear Father Atwell At Banquet

Annual dinner of the Adult Sodality will be held at the Powers Hotel on Tuesday, June 4, at 7:30 p.m. with the Rev. Henry Atwell, assistant editor of the Courier Journal as guest speaker.

Dolores Dawson is making arrangements with the assistance of Margaret Fitzpatrick. This adult sodality group, which is sponsored by the Diocesan Parish Sodality Union, is made up of young men and women from several different parishes throughout the city.

It was started to give adults the opportunity to continue their Sodality way of life in an organized Sodality. John Kuebel and Kathleen Bond are prefects; Dorothy Cronbach is the secretary. The Rev. Edward E. Steinkirchner is the spiritual director.

MEETINGS ARE held on Sunday evenings at St. Boniface Hall. Besides spiritual development of the individual, the adult sodalists are engaged in various phases of apostolic activity. They teach catechism to the boys at industry, they visit the sick at home, they work with the teenagers at the Charles Settlement House.

They have done parish census work, and also they have visited the poor and sick in their homes. "These sodalists are striving to live the full Sodality life which calls for the sanctification of self through prayer and the sacraments, and the satisfaction of others together with the spread of the Church through works in the Apostolate," according to a spokesman. The Holy Father has called the Sodality Catholic Action under the auspices and inspiration of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Discussion Set At Business Women's Meet

Business Women's Group of the Catholic Women's Club will hold its May meeting in the Alexander St. Club House on Tuesday, May 28th, at 6:30 p.m. Miss Cynthia Herbst will be supper chairman.
