20 In First Communion Class At St. Ignatius

Hornell—Twenty children received their First Holy Communion in St. Ignatius Loyola Church.

The class received the Blessed Sacrament at the 8:30 a.m. Mass which was celebrated by the Rev. Joseph M. McDonnell, pastor. Father McDonnell also addressed the class.

The children were dressed in traditional white with the little girls in the class wearing shoulder length veils. Approaching the sanctuary two by two, the children knelt on a kneeler covered with white satin decorated with asparagus fern. There they received the Blessed Sacrament from Father O'Donnell, assisted by the Rev. Norbert Nolan.

Hymns were sung during Mass by the children's choir. William Loree was organist.

Notre Dame High Notes

By ANN DE MEEMER and BOB LEVANDUSKI

Next Wednesday, May 28, will be a day long awaited by the Notre Dame High School Class of '38. Traditional junior day activities will begin in the morning with Mass and Holy Communion. Breakfast will follow. In the afternoon, the juniors will present "Jamaican Hello" for the rest of the student body, in the auditorium. A banquet in the evening will close the activities.

ON MEMORIAL DAY, May 30, Notre Dame's second senior-junior Prom will be held. The Mark Twain will play host to "To Rel Shu Ku," the name of the games chosen to highlight its Oriental theme. Music to be furnished by Dick Dejniska's Orchestra. Bids are now on sale at $2.50 per couple.

ROBERT GAMER, senior, was awarded first prize in the poppy poster contest sponsored by the American Legion. Helen Harrington won second, Mary Lu Morris third and Judy Gryksa received honorable mention. These winners are members of Sister M. Jeanne's art class. Over 40 entries were submitted.

TOMORROW the faculty of Notre Dame will journey to Rochester to view the presentation of "Magnificat of Mercy." The purpose of pageant is to EXPLAINS EASTERN RITE Owego — The Rev. Alexander Maczkow of Holy Spirit Church, Binghamton, addressed the members of the Rosary and Altar Society at a meeting, Wednesday, May 15, in St. Patrick School. Father Maczkow explained the difference in the liturgy of the Eastern Rites and the Western Rites of the Catholic Church.

He told of the difference in the celebration of Holy Mass, the number of feast days, the decoration of the churches and the vestments. Father Maczkow, who was introduced by Mrs. Mary Rutherford, president, invited the members of the Society to attend one of the services of the Greek Catholic church at some future date.

Mrs. Rutherford conducted a short business meeting. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Eleanor Howe assisted by Mesdames Evelyn Barret, Katherine Forsythe, Gladys Andrews, Philomena Pedro, Mary Skelly, Lois Merrill, Blanche Babcock, Helen Reynolds and Josephine Pitcher. The Altar and Rosary Society will hold the Crowning of the Blessed Virgin, Tuesday night, May 28.

Kindergarten Class Of 47 Graduated

Hornell — Forty-seven kindergartners of St. Ann School, Hornell, were "graduated" to first grade at musical commencement ceremonies in the Pine Room of St. Ann's School.

Mrs. Edward Deagan, kindergarten teacher, was in charge of the program which included song, action songs, skits, poems and the class yell. Each little graduate wore a large pin bearing the class colors—the rainbow.

"Diplomas" were presented by the Rev. Joseph E. Smith, assistant pastor. The Pine Room was decorated with flowers, palms and pictures of particular appeal for small children.
