Geneva Teacher Honored By National Magazine

Geneva—Miss Helen Maney, head of the social studies department of Geneva High School, is one of eight teachers listed on McCall's magazine "Honor Roll of Teachers" in the June edition of the magazine. She is the only teacher so honored in New York State.

The article, "Teacher of the Year," is printed on page 67 of the publication. It contains the names of eight teachers including one from each of the following states: New York, California, Pennsylvania, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Georgia and Wisconsin.

THE TEACHERS earned "special mention in 1957 for their substantial contributions to the improvement of national teaching standards," the article states. Contributions of the various teachers were listed after their names.

Statement following Miss Maney's name reads: "Miss Helen Maney, Senior High School, Geneva, N.Y. Her citizenship-education classes are enriched by her practical experience. She is an elected member of Geneva's governing Common Council and a leader in local and state professional and civic groups."
