GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

* * *

PALM SUNDAY MORNING OUR LORD sent two of His disciples down the road from Bethany to Jerusalem. They were told that on meeting a man with a colt they were to say to him: "The Lord hath need of it." Our Lord REQUISITIONED THE BEAST on which He would ride triumphantly into Jerusalem. He brushes aside all claims, all titles, even all needs with the simple words: "The Lord hath need of it." When He says this to us, He never expects us to oppose, to postpone or to deny. We are to loosen our hands that grasp, and unlock the treasury that hoards. To Christ's authoritative demand, the only answer is obedience — swift and glad.

BUT THAT IS NOT THE WHOLE STORY. Our Lord also said that when He has finished with the colt He will restore it. How happy the owner must have been after the Resurrection and Ascension to say: "I gave my colt to the Lord for His triumphant entry into Jerusalem."

THE LORD TELLS US, "I have need of your talents, your money, your sacrifices." When we get them back — and we always do — there will be a fragrance about them, and the memory that He used them. If you wis to get the greatest blessings out of your possessions lay them at His Feet, you will get back your capital transformed into heavenly merit. It will me more truly yours than ever before. This is true of any sacrifice you make now to convert a pagan in India or help a leper in Africa. When you send your little sacrifice to the Holy Father through his own Society for the Propagation of the Faith then indeed you lay it at the Feet of Christ for you put it into the hands of His Vicar on Earth!

GOD LOVE YOU to J. Y. "Please let this $10 help some of those poor people who are good enough to let us help them" . . . to M.S. "I am in grade two and saved this $2 from the money I received when I got A's on my report card" . . . to R.T.B. "The enclosed $25 is a lecture fee that I want to go to the missions" . . . to A. O. "Today is my 84th birthday and in thanksgiving for God's blessings I send this $3 for my brothers and sisters in the Missions" . . . to Anon "A small $5 sacrifice I made by giving up my day off."

YOU SAY YOU HAVE YOUR OWN GOD LOVE YOU MEDAL. That's wonderful, but does your best friend have one? Introduce your friends to your Blessed Mother through the GOD LOVE YOU MEDAL. Don't wait for an occasion to give a gift, just give it for friendship's sake and you will find your friendship stronger in Our Lady. With your request and the corresponding offering the medal of your choice will be sent.

Small sterling silver medal	$2
Small 10k gold filled medal	$3

Holy Rosary Pastor Offers Mass For Sister M. Richard

Solemn Requiem Mass for the repose of the soul of Sister Mary Richard, S.S.J. who had taught at Holy Rosary School for the past two years, was celebrated by Monsignor Charles F. Shay, at Nazareth Convent, Pittsford, Friday May 31.

Sister died in St. Joseph Hospital, Elmira, on Tuesday, May 28, 1957 after a brief illness.

Assisting Monsignor Shay were Rev. Daniel V. Hogan, Deacon; Rev. Paul I. Cloonan, Subdeacon; Rev. Albert H. Schnacky, Master of Ceremonies. Monsignor Louis W. Edelman and Monsignor John M. Duffy were in the sanctuary.

SIXTH GRADE pupils of Sister Mary Richard's classroom at Holy Rosary School attended the funeral in a body and formed a guard of honor both at the Motherhouse and at the cemetery. Father Schnacky gave the blessing at the grave, assisted by Monsignor Joseph H. Gefell and Monsignor Shay.

Sister Mary Richard entered the Sisters of Saint Joseph in 1920 from Rexville. She taught at Holy Apostles School for 18 years and at St. Augustine's School for 9 years. She had also been on the faculty of St. Mary's School and SS. Peter & Paul School, Elmira, and of St. John's School, Greece.

Surviving is one brother, Richard Lyons, of Snyder.

Parish In Florida Honors Pastor, Once Mt. Morris Resident

Mt. Morris— Word has been received here that parishioners of Christ the King Parish, Jacksonville, Florida, honored their pastor, the Rev. William Thomas Larkin, formerly of Mt. Morris on Sunday, May 12 with a reception on the occasion of his 10th anniversary in the priesthood.

Father Larkin, a native of Mt. Morris, was ordained in Syracuse May 17, 1947 by Bishop Walter E. Foery. He completed his studies at St. Andrew and St. Bernard Seminaries in Rochester. He celebrated his first Mass at St. Patrick's Church here on Sunday, May 18, 1947. He is the son of Mrs. William Larkin and the late William T. Larkin.

The party was put on by the various societies in the parish, which consists of 880 families. They presented Father Larkin with a large cake decorated with roses and a miniature gold chalice on top of the cake.

Father Larkin's mother, Mrs. William Larkin and his sister, Miss Clarice Larkin, attended.

TAKING OVER leadership of Nazareth College Guild, Mrs. John F. Noonan, (left) president is offered best wishes by Mrs. Pat E. Provenzano, retiring president.

College Guild Completes 'Most Successful Year'

A report on the most successful year in its history was heard and incoming and outgoing officers, honored at the annual luncheon of Nazareth College Guild given by Sister M. Rose Angela, dean at the college on May 21.

Mrs. Pat E. Provenzano, president presided and spoke of the commendable support of members which enabled, she said, the Guild to give the Sisters of St. Joseph in charge of the college more aid than in previous years.

NEW OFFICERS announced are: Mrs John F. Noonan, president, a daughter of Mrs. Louis C. Hock, one of the guild's early presidents; and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt, recording secretary.

During the past year, it was reported, the Guild sponsored a Fashion Show, card party and fun night, three of its most successful projects.

Retiring officers are: Mrs. Provenzano president and Mrs. Stanley J. Stokose, secretary.

The Guild in existence about 20 years has for its sole objection the aiding of Nazareth College Building Fund. Founded by the late Sister M. Teresa Marie, the Guild is now presided over by Sister M. Rose Angela.

BESIDES OFFICERS noted are: Mrs. Rocco L. Stio, vice president and Mrs Burton E. Walker, treasurer and the following Council members: Mesdames Joseph Boyle, George Boylen, George A. Conway, Peter V. Flanagan, Philip H. Hafner, Ronald J. McDonald, William E. Merriman, James I. Mooney, Irving Nientimp, Nelson E. Owen, John J. Shapley, Robert J. Vogt, Donald E. Woerner, Merritt A. Woodward, Robert J. Wynne and Henry P. Zlotnik.

Meeting was adjourned until September when activities for 1957 1958 will be presented to the Council.

Aquinas Mothers List Final Meet

Aquinas Mothers Club will hold its final meeting of the year on June 11 at 8:30 p.m., at the school auditorium on Dewey Ave. Installation of officers will take place.

The entertainment will consist of a "Variety Show" put on by a group of Aquinas mothers. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria.

Society To Elect, Altar Boys Feted In Clifton Springs

Clifton Springs — Annual banquet for altar boys and members of the choir of St. Felix Church was held at the Town Pump Restaurant, Orleans, last week. Religious instruction teachers also were guests at the event where 43 were assembled.

The Rev. Emmett Dougherty, pastor, thanked the groups for their work during the past year. Mrs. Claude Goodman, choir director, also expressed her appreciation for their cooperation, giving special recognition to Miss Patrcia Corwin and Miss Kay Lush who will graduate this month at Clifton Springs Central School and will not continue as choir members next year.

SOCIETY TO ELECT

Clifton Springs — Officers will be elected for the coming year when members of the Rosary and Altar Society of St. Felix Church meet in the church hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 12. Miss Helen Keating will serve as chairman of the committee in charge of refreshments served following the business meeting.

Plans will be completed for the Communion breakfast to be served by the Society for 40 children to receive their First Communion at the 7:30 a.m. Mass, Sunday, June 16.

Cenacle Retreat League Lists Annual Communion

The second annual Mass and Communion breakfast for members and friends of the Cenacle Retreat League will be held on Sunday, June 9, at 9 a.m. at St. Joseph Church and, at 10 a.m. at the Sheraton Hotel.

Dr. Eugenie A. Leonard of the Catholic University in Washington will be guest speaker at the breakfast, at which the Rev. Albert H. Shamon will preside.

DR. LEONARD, a convert to Catholicism in 1935, will speak on "The Gift of the Cenacle." She is an author and was dean of women and professor of education at Syracuse University from 1930 to 1935. Dr. Leonard is presently counselor and advisor at the Catholic University in Washington.

The Cenacle Retreat League was organized a year ago by a small group of women and the Religious of the Cenacle Retreat House at 693 East Ave. Its purpose is to foster closed retreats and to emphasize to women the importance of making a yearly closed retreat. This is done by illustrated slides and talks by the members to parish organizations throughout the city. The league's membership has grown to 950.

Guests at the breakfast will be entertained by Harriet Johnston Byquist, soloist, accompanied by Helen Kondolf of the Nazareth College staff.

The following committee is assisting Mrs. Norbert E. Wattel, chairman: Miss Marguerite G. Colgan, co-chairman; tickets, Miss Helen A. Durnin and Miss Catherine Brophy; arrangements, Miss Margaret Della Pietra and Miss Marie Vetter; decorations, Miss Jean Fazio and Mrs. Raymond Zimmer; reception, Miss Josephine L. Kanty, Miss Edna M. Hasselwander, Mrs. Edward L. Zimmer, Mrs. Agnes Lavelle, Mrs. James G. Comerford, Miss Margaret E. Devereaux, Miss Mary S. DiCandia, Miss Regina K. Kennedy, Mrs. Gilbert J. Kirn, Miss Therese O'Brien and Mrs. John J. Shapley; publicity, Miss Margaret Rowan.

Tickets are available through Miss Durnin at GReenfield 3-7565, or at the Cenacle Convent, 693 East Ave.
