Red Poland To Return Stolen Church Property

Warsaw — (NC) — The return of religious objects plundered from Polish churches during the nazi occupation of Poland and kept by Poland's Stalinist government, has been agreed to by the Polish Ministry of Culture.

The treasures, which have been in the State Art Museum of Cracow, were taken from almost all the churches in the Archdiocese of Gniezno and Poznan and the Diocese of Chelmno, Wroclaw and Lodz.

WHEN THE Soviet armies pushed toward Berlin, the treasures were hidden in salt mines in Grasheben. They remained there until "liberated" by American troops and moved to Wiesbaden.

They were then sent to the late Cardinal August Hlond, Primate of Poland, but never reached him. Instead, they were confiscated by Poland's Stalinist government and stored away.

The decision to return the treasures, which include monstrances, chalices, ciboria, reliquaries and other works of religious art, was reached after discussions between Church officials and the present Polish government.

Red-Beaten Priest Seeks To Go Back

Chicago — (NC) — A missionary who was a prisoner of the Chinese Reds for six years said here that he would like to return to a post in the Orient.

"THE LIVING is too easy in this country for me to stay here more than a year," said Franciscan Father Fulgence Gross, 53, who was released by the Chinese communists last March after being subjected to brutal treatment.

He is a guest at Mayslake, the Franciscan retreat house near Chicago. A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Gross said his Red captors beat him for three days and nights to make him sign a confession that he was "an American spy."

IN HIS "confession," he said he was able to introduce a clause making it obvious to a careful reader that he had done none of the things he was charged with.

Father Gross returned to the U. S. from Hong Kong on May 4. In the months since he gained his freedom, he has put on most of the weight he lost while confined. But doctors have told him he must have all of his teeth extracted before he can be restored to full health.

Catholic Women Talks At Harvard

Cambridge, Mass. — (NC) — Barbara Ward, British economist and author is the first woman ever to address a Harvard University commencement.

She spoke in the presence of some 15,000 persons at the university's 306th graduation exercises. The wife of Sir Robert Gilliman Jackson, she is a past president of the Catholic Women's League. Among her books are "The West at Bay" and "Policy for the West."

Miss Ward, who was awarded an honorary degree, is only the second woman to be so honored by Harvard. The first was Helen Keller, known for her work on behalf of the handicapped.
