Priesthood 'Noble Task,' Says Pope

Vatican City (NC) — The priesthood is "a noble and thrilling task" warranting total dedication of the individual, Pope Pius XII told a group of Scottish priests and seminarians.

He exclaimed: "To catechize, to sanctify, to save for an eternity! What a noble and thrilling task it is! It surely deserves the entire dedication, holding nothing back of your priestly lives."

The pontiff spoke during a special audience granted to the superiors and students of the Pontifical Scottish College.

Christ Painted In Indian Garb

St. Ignatius, Mont. (NC) — A life-size painting of Christ dressed as an Indian has been unveiled at St. John Berchman's church, a mission church of St. Ignatius on the Flathead Indian Reservation.

Following the unveiling, a number of Indians attended an outdoor Mass.

The new painting, titled "The Desire of the everlasting Hills," hangs over the altar of the church. It is the work of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wigrud, residents of the Jocko Valley, where St. John's church is located.
