Services Offered For Miss Lux

Funeral services for Miss Catherine A. Lux, 99 who formerly operated a millinery shop in Rochester were conducted at Ryan and McIntee Funeral Chapel, and in St. John the Evangelist Church, Greece, Wednesday, June 26.

Miss Lux who at one time resided at 43 Albemarle St., died June 24, 1957.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was offered by her nephew, the Rev. Donald E. Lux, pastor of St. John's assisted by the Rev. Frederick W. Bush, deacon and the Rev. George S. Wood, subdeacon.

Born in Rochester in 1858, three years before the Civil War, Miss Lux throughout most of her life was active in all kinds of church work.

After she was graduated from St. Peter and Paul School, Miss Lux went to work in the millinery department of the now defunct John Fahy Co. Later she worked for McCurdy and Company and in 1900 she and her sister, Louise, established their own business, the Lux Millinery Shop in the Burke Building.

Miss Lux was a member of the Order of Martha of St. Vincent DePaul Society and of the Rosary Guild of Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Surviving Miss Lux are a brother, Henry M. Lux and several nieces and nephew including Famer Lux.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery where Father Lux and Father Wood imparted the blessing.
