

Fun Conducted for Harry Lill

Funerals for Harry Lill, who died June 23, 1957, were held at the Holy Name Society of the parish, and held member of the Laymen's Retreat League, St. George Commandery of the Knights of St. John and the Wollensak Quarter-Century Club.

Born in 1887, he attended St. Michael School. He worked at Wollensak Optical Co. from 1902 until his retirement in 1955. He served as 17th Ward supervisor from 1933 to 1941.

Surviving are two sons, Raymond and Norbert; one daughter, Mrs. Maxine Leagy; two brothers, John and George; two sisters, Mrs. Edward Cassanette and Mrs. George Moss and five grandchildren.

Nephews served as bearers. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, where blessing was given by Father Baker assisted by Father Krieg.

Dorothy Day Visits Rochester Unit

MISS DOROTHY DAY (seated at left) of New York City, co-founder of the Catholic Worker Movement, is greeted by members of the group which conducts St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 402 South Ave., during a visit here. Miss Day, publisher of the Catholic Worker, a monthly publication, and author of several books, pointed out that stunts exist even in prosperous times and that the law of charity is a universal one. In photo (from left) are: seated—Miss Day; Mrs. Michael Hastings; standing—Mrs. Arthur Farren, Miss Wilma Higgs, Bernard Lancer, Mrs. Joseph Czarlecki, Clarence O'Toole, Michael Hastings. ### CYO Schedules Summer Programs For Area Youth Catholic Youth Organization announced its summer program under way this week, with a schedule of gymnastic events and a new series of swimming classes.

A large enrollment was accepted for the tiny tot swim program. The swimming pool has few openings left for group participation.

Miss Janice Gifford, director of girls' and women's Aquatic program announced that due to heavy registrations two tiny tot classes will be organized for Thursday afternoons.

The tiny tot classes for youngsters between the ages of four and six years old are limited to 20 youngsters. This affords a concentrated effort upon the part of the three instructors to acclimate these youngsters to the water, she said.

The learn to swim program on Saturday afternoon is under the direction of Vincent J. Natale, aquatic director of men and boys' programs.

The learn to swim program is designed for youngsters between the ages of seven and 14 years (boys and girls) and again affords a concentrated effort upon the beginning swimmer. Natale has a few openings left in this program, which will begin Saturday, June 29 at 1:30 p.m.

In the gymnasium, George Cheston, director of the gymnastic program, with the assistance of James Cucinella, has instruction classes in gymnastic

Services Conducted For John Keyes

Final service for John F. Keyes, of Salt Lake City who operated a barber shop at 1306 Dewey Ave. here for 35 years, was held Wednesday, June 26, at the Robert J. Poole Funeral Home, 1305 Dewey Ave.

Requiem Mass for Mr. Keyes was celebrated in Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Salt Lake City, Utah, with Bishop Duane G. Hunt, (successor to Bishop Kearney) presiding. Mr. Keyes died June 18, 1957, in Utah where he had resided for the past three years. He formerly resided at 166 Dove St., Rochester, N. Y.

Friends from Holy Rosary parish recited the Rosary at the funeral home on Tuesday.

Mr. Keyes bought the Dewey Avenue shop when he moved here from Canada about 1920. For the last two years he had lived in Salt Lake City with a son, Dr. Thomas Keyes. He was a member of Holy Rosary Parish here.

Besides the son, Mr. Keyes leaves his wife, Alice; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Coates of Alpine, Calif.; a brother, Michael, of Ontario, Can.; a sister, Mrs. Agnes Stanton, also of Ontario, and six grandchildren.

A burial service was held at the graveside in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.
