

Drive-In Theaters Blessing?
Or Curse?

MULLET'S ON LAKE GEORGE

More and more Drive-In theaters are popping up throughout our country as a relaxed and cool attraction to summer movie-goers. They have been called everything from a blessing to an occasion of sin.

For the family, they might well be a blessing. Here the parents can attend a movie, have the children with them and not worry about or pay for a "baby sitter."

In a conventional movie house, children often get restless and unmanageable. In the open-air theater, they can sit in the comfort of their car with more "squirring" room and if they become noisy, only the family is disturbed.

MANY A HOUSEWIFE has blessed the Drive-In. It's comfort is the only device in many a year that has tempted "dad" to take her out in the evening. The prospect of attending the theater with his wife and family does not sound so trying to him after a hard day's work when, instead of the rigmarole of changing from his working clothes, getting the kids dressed, finding parking space, and finally sitting in rather cramped corners, he merely has to drive into the theater.

very different for many of our youngsters. The same privacy and comfort of the Drive-In that is such a blessing for the family has become an occasion of sin for many young couples on dates.

IN FACT, it is known that Drive-In theaters in many areas are being USED by young people for one purpose only—to commit sin.

Theater managers have even "helped" the case along by offering bills that will excite the youngsters and put them emotionally "in the mood."

"Passion Pits" are what the youngsters themselves jokingly call the open-air theaters. But it's no joke, as many a parent has found out.

WE WARN our youngsters against parking in dark and secluded spots while out on a date, but the Drive-In is a greater danger for the young person to day than yesterday's "lovers' lane" ever was.

To allow our young people "free rein" where Drive-In theaters are concerned is like giving them a cobra for Christmas!

But the Drive-In is something
