Largest Enrollment Opens Stella Maris

One hundred and thirty-six boys from Rochester and Western New York, largest enrollment in the 31 year history of Camp Stella Maris, the diocesan boys and girls camp, Conesus Lake, enjoyed the season's first week.

Returns Home

REV. JOSEPH P. BRENNAN (Above) returned to Rochester, this week, after two years of post graduate study in the Biblical Institute in Rome where he obtained a Licentiate in Sacred Scripture (S.S.L.) degree. Son of Mrs. William J. Brennan and the late Mr. Brennan of 1489 Dewey Ave. Father Brennan attended Sacred Heart School, St. Andrew and St. Bernard Seminaries. He was ordained Dec. 8, 1954.

The boys were kept busy with a program of swimming, boating, canoeing, craft, baseball, hiking and campfire under the supervision of a staff of 25 seminarians.

REV. EUGENE H. McFARLAND, diocesan youth director, is director and resident chaplain of Stella Maris. Thomas Statt is head counselor assisted by Lawrence Murphy. The Waterfront is in charge of Paul Freemesser with George Wiant, John Weyand, Anthony Finks, Gary LaLonde and David Connor as assistant instructors. The baseball department is headed by John Martin assisted by John Doody, Albert Cason, Ernest Curran and James Lawler.

In the Craft Lodge John Carey is Head Instructor with John O'Connor and Roy Kiggins as assistants. Edward Golden supervises the varied activities of the "War Department" with the help of Edward Dillon, Thomas Lenhard and Joseph Jankowiak.

For over 10 years the Sisters of Mercy have supervised the kitchen and infirmary. The Junior Counselors are Daniel Holland, Jerry Moynihan, Paul McCarthy, David Callan, and Walter Hanss.

Radio Speaker Listed At St. Joseph's Church

A Novena in honor of St. Anne, Mother of the Blessed Virgin will be conductd in St. Joseph Church in downtown Rochester opening on Thursday, July 18 after the 8 a.m. Mass according to the Very Rev. Gerald J. Whelan, C.SS.R., rector.

The Rev. Joseph Manton, C.SS.R., national known radio speaker will conduct the novena services.

TWO SERVICES will be held each day, one after the 8 a. m. Mass and the other in the evening at 5:15 p. m. The evening service will begin with recitation of the Rosary followed by special novena prayers, sermon and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Father Manton, a Redemptorist missionary for 17 years has conducted the Novena in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in the famed Shrine in the Mission Church, Roxbury, Mass., now a Basilica. The services are broadcast, each week.

A guest speaker on the National Catholic Radio Hour four times, Father Manton "is in great demand," Father Whelan said. "We in Rochester are so fortunate to have him at this time. His talks will be most inspirational and helpful. We invite all to make this novena."

Father Manton, a Brooklyn native, studied at Redemptorist schools and seminary. He did post graduate work in English at Catholic University of America and since his ordination has been engaged in spreading devotion to Our Mother of Perpetual Help.

25 Communities Represented At Summer Sessions

Sisters from 25 communities in 11 states are attending the Nazareth College summer session on the East Ave. campus this year. Among them are Sisters of St. Joseph from 8 different communities, including two from the Florida community, which was founded directly from the Sisters of Saint Joseph Motherhouse at LePuy, France.

Last summer in LePuy Sister Eva Marie and Sister Christine Francis of the Nazareth College faculty met Mother Anselm, the sister who started the Florida group as a mission from LePuy and who remained there until a separate foundation was established. Sisters of Saint Joseph are also here from Ohio, Vermont and Massachusetts, and from Watertown, Brooklyn and Buffalo in New York State.

MANY TEACHERS from the local teaching communities—Sisters of Mercy, School Sisters of Notre Dame, Franciscan Sisters and Sisters of St. Joseph—are at Nazareth as well as representatives from teaching orders not so well-known in this area; such as Sisters of the Resurrection, Holy Humility of Mary, Ursulines, Sisters of Christian Charity, Sisters of Charity of Halifax, Sister Servants of Mary Immaculate, Sisters of Divine Compassion, Dominicans, Daughters of Charity of the Sacred Heart, Sisters of Charity of St. Augustine.

Registration tops all previous years with more than 450 enrolled, including about 50 young women from the Rochester area, a number of whom are planning to teach in the Rochester parochial schools.

The summer session will continue through August 7.

Seaton Elected By Fourth Degree

Richard A. Seaton of 129 Sunset Drive was elected faithful navigator of Rochester Fourth Degree Assembly, Knights of Columbus at a dinner meeting held at Sweet's Farm, Webster.

Named with him to serve during 1957 and 1958 are: John W. Prendergast, faithful captain; John J. Conway, Jr., faithful admiral; James V. Crowley, faithful comptroller; Frank S. Micell, faithful pilot; James O. Stein, inside sentinel and Robert J. Farrell, outside sentinel.

Nazareth Library Moving Underway

Moving of the more than 37,000 books, a quarter of a million dollar collection, from the Nazareth College administration building to the new library building just completed on the campus is taking place, this week.

The reference library was moved by 20 Catholic Theater men on Wednesday night. The remainder of the project is scheduled for today when nun-students at the Summer session will form a chain to pass along the valuable volumes to the gothic-styled library building on the East Ave. campus.
