'48 Hours With God'

stand, kneel side by side in chapel and sit together at dinner. It is created by a singleness of purpose — the making of a good retreat.

Some will dress casually in sport shirts and sweaters. Others will wear their suits and ties throughout. Each follows his own tastes, as there is no rule of dress, so long as proper decorum and common sense is used.

When those who have made retreats are enthusiastically telling about them to others who have never made one, they often tell how good the meals are, how comfortable the beds and how beautiful the grounds. All this is very true, but possibly it is very little incentive for most people who may have the same conditions at home.

THE REAL REASON everyone should be encouraged to make a retreat is because they are so necessary. People can save their souls without ever making a retreat, of course. But there are many heading in the wrong direction because they did not periodically set their sights on eternity through the help of a retreat.

SILENT PRAYER in the chapel of the Cenacle Retreat House is important part of retreatant's schedule. The Religious of the Cenacle have the special privilege of perpetual exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

SPIRITUAL READING in the privacy of his own room is an integral part of the week-end retreatant's program.
