Funeral Rites in Corning

Funeral Masses for three Corningites were offered during the past week as follows:

Corning — Funeral services were held Saturday morning, July 27, for Fahey T. Parish, retired Ingersoll-Rand Company employe, who died the previous Thursday in St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira.

The Rev. Harold Rogers, pastor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Painted Post, conducted the prayer service at the home and celebrated Mass in his church. Burial was in St. Mary Cemetery.

Honorary bearers were Michael Hickey and Willard Noyes; active bearers were E. J. Smith, Alexander Pinke, Donald G. Drummond, Raymond Haney, Robert Minnear, Charles Shoemaker, Orrin Fisher and William Hays.

Mr. Parish had made his home with his son, Edward J. Parish, general manager of Ingersoll-Rand Co., for the past several years.

He is a member of the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary in Painted Post and the Holy Name Society.

Survivors in addition to his son are two granddaughters, Patricia and Robert at Painted Post; two step-daughters, Mrs. John Peck of Corning and Mrs. James Maloney of Binghamton, one brother, Cleo Parish of Marion, Ohio and a sister, Miss Iida Green, also of Marion, Ohio.

Notre Dame High Activities Cited

Several incoming seniors have been named potential Honor Society members providing they maintain a 90% average and continue to excel in leadership and service to the school in order to be considered for permanent membership. One third of the recent graduating class was selected as honor students, maintaining an average of over 85%.

Further education is the goal of most Notre Dame graduates. Over 50% of the class of '56 is attending college. From this year's group of 65, eleven girls will enter St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, Elmira; six have chosen business schools and 21 are registered in Colleges in the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Canada. Nor have religious vocations been neglected. John Donahue '56 is now an aspirant in the Maryknoll Order while four boys are enrolled in St. Andrew's Seminary and two girls are entering the religious life in the Fall.

GM SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED AT ND

Notre Dame, Ind. Four young men who will enter Notre Dame as freshmen in September have been awarded four year scholarships established at the university by the General Motors Corporation, according to an announcement today by Rev. Richard D. Murphy, C.S.C., director of admissions and scholarships.

The GM scholarship winners are Dennis P. Cantwell, St. Louis, Mo.; Eugene Z. Dombkowski, Chicago, Ill.; Donald E. Leavers, Erie, Pa.; and David P. Lee, South Portland.

Under its "national plan," GM annually awards 100 four-year scholarships to high school seniors who excel in a national competitive examination. Phillips J. Gibson of Rochester is one of the General Motors scholarship winners currently attending Notre Dame.

Annual Memorial Field Mass Said in Addison Cemetery

Addison — In memory of all deceased in both local Catholic Cemeteries, the Rev. Francis H. Turner, pastor of St. Catherine Church celebrated the annual Field Day Mass in St. Catherine Cemetery, Sunday, July 28.

The altar was situated under a large tent on the center mound of the Cemetery. Francis Kane, Jr. was altar boy and Thomas Grange, a former altar boy took up the collection.

In the Memorial sermon, Father Turner paid tribute to those buried in the Catholic cemeteries. The pastor stressed the fact that "all our prayers are not always answered by God, who in His infinite love and wisdom, knows such request by prayers are not always for our own good."

Father Turner pointed out that the will of God must always be accepted in this life. "If we wish to earn eternal reward in the next world."

Despite the inclement weather many out of town people attended the Memorial Mass including: Dr. and Mrs. John Hanrahan and family, Mrs. Maude Hanrahan, Mrs. William Harvey and family of Westfield, N. Y., Attorney and Mrs. Dan Daly of Utica, Attorney William Hogan of Mahwah, N. J., Misses Anne Edwards, Winifred and Mary Jane Thompson of Elmira, Miss Gertrude Turner of Hornell, Miss Minnie Cahill and brother, John of Campbell, Miss Mary Elizabeth Cahill of Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kane and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lyons, and family, Paul Kane of Painted Post, RD; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coleman
