Catholic Films Tops In Magazine Survey

New York (NC) Two Catholic films were among the three religious films selected by television stations in an annual survey to determine the 50 best free films available for television.

The survey was conducted by Variety magazine, which polled television stations across the country to determine selection of the best available public service films.

The two Catholic films are "The Story of Juan Mateo," produced by the Maryknoll Fathers at their mission in Guatemala, and the Christopher film "Government Is Your Business," featuring Father James Keller, M.M.

A LONG-PLAYING recording of an Ave Maria radio program is presented to Vice-president Richard Nixon by Father Alcuin F. Egan, S.A., executive producer of the program. The broadcast, titled "Voice in the Wilderness," paid special tribute to His Eminence Joszef Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary. In accepting the programs, Mr. Nixon noted his particular interest in the material because of his consistent fight against Communism, both as Senator and as Vice-president. Mr. Nixon also accepted a recording for presentation to President Eisenhower. (NC Photos)

Recording Given Ike, Nixon Honors Card. Mindszenty

Washington — (NC) — President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard Nixon have been presented a transcript of an Ave Maria radio program that paid tribute to His Eminence Jozsef Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary.

The presentation was made to Vice President Nixon in his office by Father Alcuin F. Egan, S.A., executive producer of the Ave Maria Hour. Mr. Nixon also accepted a transcript of the program for President Eisenhower.

In accepting the transcript, Mr. Nixon was particularly interested in it because of the personal fight he has waged against communism, both as a senator and Vice President.

The transcript, on two long play records, is from the Ave Maria Hour's June 23 program entitled "Voice in the Wilderness." It tells the story of the arrest, trial and imprisonment of Cardinal Mindszenty by the communists as seen through the eyes of friends and patriots.

THE TRANSCRIPT contains also an address by His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, in which he voices his opposition to communism and denounces the "men of sin" who wage war against Cardinal Mindszenty.

The Ave Maria program, broadcast weekly, is in its 23rd year of production. It is carried by almost 400 radio stations in the United States, and is heard throughout the world on 300 radio stations of the Armed Forces Radio Service. The program is produced by the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement, of Graymoor, Garrison, N. Y.

Tryouts For 'Lark' Scheduled By Catholic Theatre Group

Tryouts for Anouilh's play, "The Lark," story of St. Joan of Arc, will be held Wednesday, Aug. 21 at 7:30 p.m. on the stage of the Catholic Theatre Auditorium at Clifford and Hudson Aves., according to production manager Ronald Pedrone.

This is the second time the group has been privileged to present the first amateur performance of a Broadway play. Last year with special permission of the author, Gian-Carlo Menotti, Catholic Theatre produced "The Saint of Bleecker Street."

Although "The Lark" will not become available for amateur production until early October, permission has already been granted C.T.R. to present the play Oct. 12 and 13.

Director Wilford Scott and set designer Carl Zollo saw the Anouilh play two years ago in Paris and immediately on return began efforts to obtain the rights for presentation in Rochester.

RONALD PEDRONE
Production Manager

DUE TO A number of technical and contract difficulties, negotiations for production could not be made until this fall.

"The Lark" requires a cast of 22 and promises to be one of Catholic Theatre's major undertakings.

All persons interested in taking part in the play either in an acting capacity or in a technical phase should appear at the tryouts or contact Pedrone by writing Catholic Theatre of Rochester, P.O. Box 1249, Rochester 3.

Legion Of Decency Condemns Two Films

New York —(NC)— Two foreign-made motion pictures have been evaluated in Class C—condemned—by the National Legion of Decency, it has been announced here.

The pictures are "Passionate Summer," a French-made movie distributed in this country by Kingsley, and "Stella," a Greek-made movie, distributed by Burstyn.

THE LEGION posted the following objection against "Passionate Summer" — "The theme and treatment of this film dwell almost invariably upon subject matter which is morally unacceptable and seriously offensive to the virtue of purity."

Regarding "Stella," the Legion objection stated — "This picture, in the story it tells, seriously violates Christian and traditional standards of morality and decency, by reason of gross suggestiveness in costuming, dialogue and situations.
