St. John Fisher College Names New Registrar

Gerard H. Tucker, M.S., was appointed registrar to succeed the late Kathryn Zeldi Lyons and Miss Margaret A. Schumacher, R.S., who was named recorder in administrative staff changes made at St. John Fisher College according to the Rev. John P. O'Meara, C.S.B., Ph.D., dean today.

Tucker, who received his B.S.A. degree from Le Moyne College, Syracuse and his M.S. from the University of Rochester, has served as administrative assistant to the dean and director of placement at St. John Fisher's for the past three years. He is also an instructor in business administration.

Miss Schumacher has been assisting in the office of the registrar for the past two years. She received her bachelor of science degree in business administration from Nazareth College in 1955.

Tucker is a member of the following organizations: National Vocational Guidance Association, Adult Education Association of the United States, New York State Association of Deans and Guidance Personnel and the American Personnel and Guidance Association.

He is also a third degree member of the Knights of Columbus, St. John Fisher Council, East Rochester and treasurer of the Rochester Personnel and Guidance Association.

At the college, Tucker is chairman of the Committee on Academic Standing and the Committee on Scholarships. He also serves as a member of the Committee on Admissions.

Tucker resides with his wife and three children at 30 Washington Road in Pittsford.

Miss Schumacher who is a member of the Nazareth College Alumnae Association resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schumacher in Colton.

John Russer Funeral Rites Conducted At Holy Ghost

Funeral services for John W. Russer, brother of two cloistered nuns and widely known for his work in development of sports among youth were conducted at the Holy Ghost Church, Coldwater, Wednesday.

Mr. Russer, 60 of 406 Coldwater Rd., Gates and secretary of Russer's Inc., 237 Ames St., died August 13, 1957 in St. Mary's Hospital.

Solemn Requiem Mass was offered by the Rev. Albert J. Geiger assisted by the Rev. James R. Barnett, S. J., Deacon and the Rev. George C. Vogt, Subdeacon.

In the sanctuary were the Right Reverend Monsignors Richard K. Burns, John M. Duffy, Gerald C. Lambert, William J. Naughton and William F. Fredmore.

Mr. Russer was a member of the Holy Name Society of Holy Ghost Church, a third degree member of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus and a member and first president of the Bishop McQuaid High School Fathers Club. He belonged to several civic, business and social organizations and was active in Gates Little League.

The wholesale meat firm of which he was secretary was founded by his grandfather, Max in the late 1890s and later operated by his father, also named Max, who died in 1928.

Active in promoting athletic programs for young men, John Russer in 1947 dedicated Russer Memorial Park in memory of his father. The park was in Coldwater Road.

He left Aquinas Institute in 1933 to join his brother, Max O. Russer and their mother, Eleanor Russer, in the meat business.

Surviving besides his mother and brother are: his wife, Helen Maher Russer; one daughter, Louise Russer; eight sisters, Sister Mary Clare O. P. and Sister Mary of the Immaculate Heart O. P. of the Dominican Monastery, Elmira; Mrs. C. P. (Mary) Young, Mrs. Frank (Ruth) Carroll, Mrs. Esther Eagan, Mrs. Kenneth (Clare) Unger, Mrs. John (Barbara) Andrieu and Mrs. Eugene (Therese) Schilder and several nieces and nephews.

Auriesville Pilgrimage Set By St. John Knights, Ladies

Annual Pilgrimage to the Shrine of the North American Martyrs at Auriesville will be conducted by New York Grand Commandery and Ladies Auxiliaries Knights of St. John, Sunday, Sept. 22.

Buses will leave the Rochester Knights and Ladies of St. John Club, the Sunday morning of the 22nd at 8:00 a.m. Round trip tickets will be $7.00 per person.

"The Pilgrimage is planned for the beautiful time of the year when the colorful scenery is an inspiration in itself. The spaciousness and altitude of the grounds gives one an opportunity of seeing God's Power in Nature right here in our own New York State, when those of us are unable to visit the Holy Fatima," a spokesman said.

Persons making reservations for the pilgrimage and anyone is invited, member or not, are urged to bring their own lunch. The program as outlined, will be a procession from the gate at 1:30 p.m. headed by clergy - Stations of the Cross, Rosary and Benediction - outside High Mass at 4:00 p.m. in the Coliseum, at which time all should plan to receive Holy Communion.

A special invitation is extended to all uniform outfits to send at least a representative group to make the procession.

New Bishop - Valton City - (NC) - Most Rev. Luigi Carli, vicar general of Conagra, Italy, has been named Bishop of Sorral by His Holiness Pope Pius XII.

Legion Of Mary 'Brings Christ To Market Place'

Legion of Mary, Rochester Comitium, is "bringing Christ into the Market Place" with a Catholic Information Booth at the Monroe County Fair grounds, the week of August 19-24.

The booth is under the direction of Rev. John Menkinger, spiritual director; Richard Siebert, general chairman, and Mrs. Mary Schell, chairman of personnel.

Approximately 90 to 100 Legion workers will donate 2 to 3 hours each in an effort to bring Catholicism to the attention of the world. The theme of the exhibit is "Do You Worship God As God Wishes To Be Worshipped."

A series of topics outlining the steps to Catholicism has been prepared and will serve as the principal exhibit. Among these topics are, "Does Atheism Make Sense?", "Can You Trust Those Four Gospels?", "Baptism: Quant Ceremony or of Absolute Necessity?" and "Confession: A Fresh Start."

The Legionnaires staffing the booth will greet visitors, show them around the exhibit and answer questions about any of the topics. This is the third year that the Rochester Comitium of the
