By MARITAL MASSIANI

Paris, world famous for her churches, Paris now needs 700 new churches for the spiritual needs of a rapidly growing population, according to a recent estimate.

Maryknollers Assigned To Titicaca Mission

Maryknoll — The Maryknoll Fathers have accepted responsibility from the Holy See for a newly erected mission territory known as the Province of Jull in the mountains of southern Peru.

This territory, striding Lake Titicaca, the highest largest lake in the world, is 15,000 feet above sea level.

The mission territory of Jull, consisting of the Provinces of Huancayo and Chaucuito, has a population of 257,000, almost exclusively composed of Aymara Indians.

Assisi Meet To Study Role Of Holy Spirit

Assisi — (NC) — Some 30 archbishops and bishops from all over Italy and more than 100 university professors and other lay scholars are expected here for the weeklong 25th Courses of Christian Studies which begins here August 23.

Devoted to the phrase of the Apostles Creed, "I believe in the Holy Ghost," the week will feature lectures by Their Eminences Angelo Giuseppe Cardinal Roncalli, Patriarch of Venice; Giacomo Cardinal Berardo, Archbishop of Bologna; Giuseppe Cardinal Siri, Archbishop of Genoa, and by more than a score of clerical and lay scholars.

In Rome, the Vatican City daily, L'Osservatore Romano, has called the meeting one of particular interest at the present time.

It said that means are being sought to render modern society Christian and to attain a re-union of the Church to "that of Rome," and that this year's topic is of major import because "the Holy Ghost is the indispensable means to go to Christ and the beginning and the soul of the Church."

Deepfreeze Nun Now In Hothouse

Seattle — (NC) — "Out of the deep freeze into the hothouse" is the way Sister Lucile Theresa of the Sisters of Charity of Providence describes her transfer from a school located 120 miles south of the Arctic Circle to Sun Valley, Calif.

ALASKA has many good-will ambassadors but none is more enthusiastic than Sister Lucile, who spent the past two years teaching at Immaculate Conception School in Fairbanks.

Fairbanks is the "farthest north" outpost for Sisters in Alaska. Providence Sisters conduct a school and hospital there.

Life in Fairbanks today isn't beset with hardships but the weather requires certain adjustments, Sister pointed out.

The Sisters make one concession to the climate—they wear fur-lined boots during the winter.

One thing that is different about children in Alaska, Sister Lucile said, is that they are "quiet." Sister says this is because the children must be in

Rome Cardinal Explains New Communion Laws

Cardinal Ottaviani of the Vatican's Holy Office has answered questions submitted to Rome concerning the Church's recent revision of Eucharistic laws, according to an N.C.W.C. news report.

Asked if Holy Communion may be given in the evening outside of Mass, the Cardinal stated that in accord with Pope Pius XII's decree "Christus Dominus," the faithful may be given Communion only during Mass, immediately before, or immediately after an evening Mass.

Church law permits distribution of Communion during morning hours even if no Mass is then being celebrated.

A SECOND question asked if solid food such as candy could be considered a liquid if it were dissolved in the mouth before being swallowed.

The answer was, "No."

A THIRD query asked whether a celebrant might use wine for the absolution during Mass, without breaking his fast, when he intends to celebrate a second Mass no less than three hours later.

Cardinal Ottaviani replied that a priest celebrating a second Mass no less than three hours after the first, not only can but must use water and wine at the ablutions, in compliance with the rubrical prescriptions.

Lost My Old Stamina Says Prelate, Red Victim

Poznan — (NC) — Poznan's new archbishop has asked his flock to pray for strength for him because he "lost a lot of my old stamina" during his three-year imprisonment under the former Polish communist regime.

In his first pastoral letter to the people of his new See, Archbishop Antoni Baranik of Poznan said:

"THE BURDEN OF the responsibilities placed upon me by the Holy Father is tremendous and requires great vigor, and I lost a lot of my old stamina under the ordinals I was going through in the last few years. But I hope to prove able to cope with my new assignment, trusting... in Him who makes me strong."

"And that is why I beg you to support me with your prayers. Pray for me to Jesus Christ, to His Mother, Our Lady of Jasna Gora, Help of the Faithful, that

Church Does Not Make Distinctions

Cap De La Madeleine — (NC) — The Church makes no distinction among men because of race or color, Cardinal McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto, declared here.

Speaking at cornerstone ceremonies of a new national shrine church honoring the Blessed Virgin, the Cardinal expressed his sympathy for U.S. bishops who are trying to lead their flocks against segregation.

Noting the presence of Bishop Charles P. Greco of Alexandria, La., Cardinal McGuigan paid particular tribute to the bishops of Louisiana "who have shown great courage in the face of overwhelming prejudice."

Alhambra Votes Aid To Teach Blind

Buffalo, N. Y. — (NC) — The Order of Alhambra's 27th biennial convention voted here to appropriate $250,000 to prepare teachers who will train blind persons to read Braille.

The action was taken at the suggestion of Philip L. LeCompte of Baltimore, acting Supreme Commander who was later elected to a two year term in that post by the 1,500 delegates.

Mr. LeCompte, in advocating the project, urged that it be "entirely non-sectarian and open to all needy."

Earlier, more than 1,500 members of the order marched along Main Street and then witnessed the unveiling of an historical monument at the site of the first Catholic Church in Buffalo.

Buffalo's Bishop Joseph A. Burke blessed the monument and told the Alhambra members they were "the seed of the kingdom of God."

The monument is the 75th erected by the Alhambra Order at Catholic historical sites in the United States and Canada. The Order of the Alhambra erects monuments to mark important Catholic historical places and persons and maintain a fund for the preservation of such monuments.

KC Religion Ads 'Wonderful Success'

Chicago — (NC) — Supreme Knight Luke E. Hart told Knights of Columbus at their 75th jubilee convention that this has been "a year of new heights of activity and achievement—truly the greatest year in our Order's history."

The K. of C. leader singled out the Religious Information Program of the order as a "wonderfully successful" project. He said "there is no end in sight to its usefulness and future success."

Mr. Hart declared that great progress has been made in 75 years from a small group in a New England state to a membership of 1,018,735 in about 4,000 councils in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippines.

Inasmuch as comes from God, Love, all authorized by love. B. gift of self.

SECOND RATERS?

Our apostolic Sisters are by no means second-rate missionaries. But somehow, though we have more novices to support (during two years training) than seminarians, our appeals for help to support them ($150 a year) don't meet its ready response. Today we must help SISTERS DAMIEN, MARY BENESSI and MARGARET in India, SISTER CLAUDIA in Lebanon and SISTER SILVIA in Sicily.
