

Lay Catechist Classes To Open At Fairport

Pastors in the Rochester and urban areas are urged to send key men and women of their parish to enroll in the Diocesan Center's Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Teacher Training Course. Classes will be held weekly on Monday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. beginning Sept. 16, at the Assumption School of Religion, 10 Baumer Place, Fairport.

Rev. Leonard A. Kelly, Pastor of the Church of Our Lady of the Assumption, will teach the 30 hour course in Doctrine and Sister Maureen of the Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart will teach the 30 hour course in Methods of Teaching Religion.

The Course leads to a Teaching Certificate in Religion, presented to those who qualify, by His Excellency Bishop Kearney, at the conclusion of the Course in May.

THIRTY-ONE catechists from 13 parishes completed the course last year and the majority are presently engaged in teaching Confraternity classes throughout the diocese. Eight lay catechists are on the staff of the Assumption School of Religion this year, under the supervision of Sister Maureen.

The four classroom school is equipped with the most modern of visual aids to make Religion the "best loved of all the children's subjects."

"Rural pastors are more and more realizing the value of the laity to assist in the teaching apostolate of the Church," the Rev. Albert H. Schnacky, diocesan CCD Director, said today. "When zealous lay men and lay women are specially trained they become the right hand of their pastor."

"The catechists learn the 'Confraternity School Year Religion Course' by using it and developing lesson plans together at their weekly workshops. The course in Doctrine enables the catechists to take apart the abstract definitions of the catechism, find their inner meanings and present it to young minds in a clear, concise and psychological manner," Father Schnacky said.

Christian Doctrine Sunday Set

"Christian Doctrine Sunday" will be observed throughout the Diocese of Rochester on Sept. 16, according to Rev. Albert H. Schnacky, diocesan director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

With the social Catholic children in public schools in this diocese at least 34,184 last year, Father Schnacky stressed the importance of the parents' obligation to teach and practice their religion. That is what the "Sunday" emphasizes.

Close to half the Catholic children are in public schools and Father Schnacky said "We need Lay Teachers to do this particular type of work, teaching the children their religion. This may be accomplished by lay people attending Lay Teachers Training Courses."

Such courses will be given Sept. 16 for 30 consecutive weeks at: Ithaca—Immaculate Conception School; Fairport—School of Religion.

To Cloister In Japan

Pittsburgh—(NC)—Setting out on a mission journey that will take them half-way around the world are four nuns of Our Lady of Sorrows Monastery, Pittsburgh, the first foundation of Passionist nuns in America. They are on their way to the Diocese of Osaka, Japan to open the first Passionist foundation there. Mother Mary Vincent, at top, a convert from Judaism, formerly of Zurich, Switzerland; will head new Japanese convent of strictly cloistered nuns.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

HAVE YOU EVER HAD THE PROBLEM of who to invite for dinner? Our Lord foresaw such a social difficulty and gave us a most unexpected rule:

"When thou givest a dinner or a supper, do not ask thy neighbors to come, or thy brethren, or thy kind, or thy friends who are rich: it may be they will send thee invitations in return, and so thou wilt be recompensed for thy pains."

"Rather when thou givest hospitality, invite poor men to come, the cripples, the lame, the blind; so thou shalt win a blessing, for these cannot make thee any return; thy reward will come when the just rise again."

OUR LORD DID NOT MEAN that the poor actually have to be at our table, though King St. Louis invited 200 every night to sup with him. But it means that we can send portions to those who have nothing prepared and nothing to prepare! Just think, if you sent a day to the poor of the world, it would become $3.65 in a year.

THE POOR WHOM YOU SHOULD INVITE to your table, by sharing, are in Africa and Asia. Last year the Holy Father through his 135,000 missionaries aided 65,000,000 poor, sick, lame, blind, lepers, orphans and aged. The Catholics of the U.S. during all of last year averaged 30c apiece to help the work. Really! How very little—about the price of a pack of cigarettes a year.

PLEASE, IN THE NAME OF GOD INVITE the poor to your table, as we suggested by a daily sacrifice which you send to the Holy Father through his Society for the Propagation of the Faith. The poor in the mission lands cannot thank you, that is why Our Lord said that He will do it their name. How much greater therefore the blessing. Cut into your capital! Deny yourself daily! Make yourself happy by beginning to love others through the love of giving. It is one of the supreme joys of life.

GOD LOVE YOU! to WXC for $50. "Sent out of love of God" . . . to A.S. for $5. This is the result of saving dimes in a little bank. I send it with and prayer for the missions and a tiny request for a prayer for my sick husband. . . . to ORF the F children for 17c "My boys had a carnival in the basement and want to send the proceeds (most of which came from their six year old sister) to the missions."

YOUR PRAYERS GO A LONG WAY WHEN you use the WORLD MISSION ROSARY. They cover the whole world in the course of a few minutes. And the sacrifice offering that you send to us for the rosary goes a long way too for it is used in the far away missions. The rosary is yours at your request accompanied by your $2 sacrifice. Address: The Society for the Propagation of the Faith Order Department 386 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, New York

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to the Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 386 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, N.Y., or your Diocesan Director Rev. Geo. S. Wood, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.

Hungarian Reds Depose Bishops

Vienna—(NC)—Two Hungarian bishops have been deposed and banished to a tiny village by the Hungarian communist government.

Also according to reports reaching here, Hungary's communist government is preparing to stage propaganda trials of former Premier Imre Nagy and Father Premier Turcsanyi, former secretary to Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary.

Deputy Chief of Church Affairs Imre Miklos said in Budapest that Bishops Bertalan Balaski, O.F.M., of Ujvarhely and Joseph Petyer of Vacs have been forbidden to perform the functions of their office.

Bishop Badalik, 65, was deposed "a week or two ago," according to Mr. Miklos. Bishop Petyer, 67, was also deposed, but the Hungarian official said that was "an old story."

While denying that the prelates are under any restraint, Mr. Miklos said both are at Hejce, a village 150 miles northeast of Budapest in the Carpathian mountains near the Czechoslovakian border. They are living in the former summer residence of the Bishop of Kosice, Czechoslovakia.

Vatican Decree Permits 'Primitive' Vestments

Vatican City—(NC)—The Sacred Congregation of Rites has issued a decree allowing the use of "primitive" vestments in the Mass and other liturgical functions.

Primitive vestments are long and ample, similar to those used in the early days of the Church in Rome, which were patterned on the toga.

THE DECREE gave bishops the right to grant permission for the use of such vestments.

The decree was dated August 20 and signed by Gaetano Cardinal Cioognant and Archbishop Alfonso Cardinal of the Congregation of Rites.

Milestones of Carmelites

HISTORY of the Discalced Carmelite Order is recorded in stained glass windows in the Father Lord Memorial Chapel, in the Carmelite Monastery, Jackson, Miss. The windows from left, are: St. Elias' prevision of the Immaculate Conception, 900 B.C.; St. Simon Stock receiving the Scapular from Our Lady of Mount Carmel, 1251 A.D.; St. Teresa of Avila founding her monasteries under St. Joseph's protection, 1540; St. Teresa of Avila and St. John of the Cross, 1568; Miraculous Infant Jesus of Prague with Ven. Father Cyril, 1637; Holy Face of Jesus venerated by Ven. Sister Maria of St. Pierre, 1648; St. Theresia of Lisieux (Little Flower) with her Legion of Little Souls, 1891; Our Lady of Mt. Carmel at Fatima, 1917. The Chapel is in memory of the late Father Daniel A. Lord, S.J., because of his devoted and life long interest in the Carmelite Nuns. The Monastery is in the Diocese of Rochester, in San West Jefferson Road, Rochester.

State Scholarship Winners At Nazareth

Two additional New York State scholarship winners will attend Nazareth College this year — Miss Virginia Clarke, Nazareth Academy, has enrolled in the Music Department and Kathleen O'Reilly, Our Lady of Mercy High School, will be a Freshman in the Nursing Department. Miss Clarke was also the first winner of the Sister Irmila Music scholarship, established by Carolyn Withey Donohue for a graduate of Nazareth Academy who plans to continue her education in Music.

Juniors Ready Welcome For 180 Freshmen Reporting At Nazareth College Campus

A welcome for the 180 incoming freshmen who will arrive at Nazareth College East Avenue campus the week of Sept. 15 has been prepared by the Juniors working all during the summer.

Resident students and out-of-town area students living off the campus will register Sunday afternoon, Sept. 15 and area students will report Monday morning, Sept. 16.

This year more than 80 Freshmen will live on campus and their Junior Class Big Sisters will return to the campus Sunday afternoon to welcome them. About the same number will live in their own homes in Rochester and the surrounding area; the remainder will live with families in the college area.

FRESHMEN WILL meet Sister Rose Angela, Dean of the College, Monday morning at 9:30 in the auditorium. Following an introduction to other members of the faculty and Freshman counselors, Freshmen will participate in a testing program.

Luncheon with their Big Sisters is scheduled for Monday noon in the college dining room, after which they will be welcomed by Miss Candide Phillips, president of the Undergraduate Association and heads of the campus organizations.

Other social events on the Orientation program which will continue through the week of Sept. 15 include a marshmallow roast Monday evening, a site Tuesday afternoon, a tour of the campus and a social evening with students of new colleges in western New York, a Freshman-Junior dinner, and a tour of the city.

GENERAL CHAIRMAN of the Orientation Committee is Miss Betty Marsh, Rochester, assisted by Gretchen Foster, Leah Wehage, Rosemary Pettit, Helen Closser, and Betty Boyle.

INCLUDED IN the class are three daughters of Alumnus,

Miss Patricia Walsh, daughter of Anna Ryan Walsh 31, 96 Thatchers Road, Rochester; Miss Catherine Barrett, daughter of Eilida McNamara Barret 30, Webster; Catherine Murley, daughter of Agnes Marora Murley 30, Auburn.

Four sisters of Alumnus, Margaret Badger, Loretta Barry, Marina Brady, and Judy Trevisio and four sisters of upperclassmen, Geraldine Carroll, Annelle Costello, Nancy Furino and Barbara Piscitello are among the Freshmen.

Former presidents of the Student Council of both of the large Catholic high schools in Rochester are registered—Miss Paula Smith, Our Lady of Mercy High School and Grace Corcoran, Nazareth Academy.

Out-of-state students who are enrolled are: Miss Judy Bach, formerly of Parsons, Kansas, who has recently moved to Rochester with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bach and who is now living at 52 Abernethy Road; Mr. Bach is the chief engineer with Photostat Corporation; Miss Alice Burditt, Woodbridge Lake, N.J.; Miss Mary Elizabeth Crawley, Miami, Fla.; Miss Bohdanna Dzyrak, Irvington, N.J.; Miss Ellen Green, Madison, N.J.

Also Miss Patricia McGoff, Elizabeth, Conn.; Miss Margaret Murphy, Sayre, Pa.; Miss Gail Place, Bradford, Pa.; Miss Rita Slajkowski, Trenton, N.J.; Miss Janine Syer, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Brenda Burke, Bay Village, Ohio; and Miss Mary Porvasnik, Westlake, Ohio.

Freshmen from the New York and Brooklyn dioceses are Virginia Serbet, Memphis, Ill.; Bishop McDonnell High School; Nancy Shell, New York City, Mt. St. Ursula Academy; Carol Remenberg, Brooklyn, St. Agnes Seminary; Anne Kehoe, New York City, Dominican Academy; Virginia Burke, Hyde Park, Roosevelt High School; Marda Davis, Newburgh and Susan Kean, Purdy's, St. Mary's Academy, Newburgh.
