

Football Opens At Aquinas; 7 Games Slated

With opening of the football season at Aquinas Institute one week from Sunday, Head Coach Joe Repko is trying to field the 22 players left from a squad of 50 boys into a winning combination.

A building-up process is under way. With only four players returning it is difficult to name outstanding individuals. The coach says this season "tough" will help him round the boys into shape for a seven-game schedule. Basil Marella, his assistant, Frank "Hunk" Vadas and Father Michael Biondi, C.S.B., are sharing the junior varsity responsibilities. Don Ciaffa is trainer.

A scrimmage game with De Sales High School of Geneva is scheduled Saturday, Sept. 14 at 3 p.m.

Four new teams appear on this year's schedule for the Little League. To be met are Bishop Timon High of Buffalo, Erie Academy, Erie, Mt. Carmel High, Auburn and Caritas, Buffalo. Caritas did appear on last year's schedule, but because of rules difficulties the game did not take place.

The 1957 schedule is:

Sept. 22 — Bishop Timon, Buffalo.

Sept. 29 — Cathedral Prep, Erie.

Oct. 11 — Erie Academy — Erie at Erie.

Oct. 20 — Mt. Carmel — Auburn.

Oct. 27 — North Catholic — Pittsburgh.

Nov. 16 — St. Joseph — Cleveland.

Nov. 25 — Caritas, Buffalo at Buffalo.

All home games will be played in Aquinas Stadium, Mt. Read Blvd. and Ridgeway Ave.

Basilian Named By Librarians

John R. Whitley, C.S.B., librarian of Aquinas Institute, was named program director of the Western New York Catholic Librarians Conference.

The announcement was made by Sister Mary Bernice, R.S.M., of Buffalo, newly elected chairman of the Conference. Sister Bernice succeeds the former director of the Buffalo Public Library, William T. O'Rourke, who died of a heart attack in August.

As a member of the executive committee, Father Whitley will take part in planning the national convention of the Catholic Librarians Association which will meet next week in Buffalo.

Father Whitley graduated from Assumption University, took his master of education from the University of Rochester and received his library degrees from the University of Toronto and Wayne University.

The program will feature football and a special portion will be given over to commemorating the football games between the Ox-fords and Russers, and the Jeffersons and "Scalpers, semi-pro elvens of by-gone years.

Crowley who is heard in national television broadcasts during the football season has been in Rochester previously. One summer he resided here while engaged in business shortly after graduation. He also spoke at the Rochester Ad Club.

Tickets for the dinner at $3.50 are being received by sending checks or money orders to Elbert Angwine, 163 Willowbrook Road, Rochester 16, N.Y. Tickets will be mailed.

James Heverson is president of the Stadium Club comprising former athletes of Rochester.

63 Student Nurses Enroll At St. Mary's Hospital

St. Mary's Hospital, celebrating its one-hundredth anniversary of service to the community, welcomed 63 new student nurses to its School of Nursing, last week.

Among the entering Freshmen are girls from the Rochester area, from all over New York State and one from Ocala, Florida.

TO ADD TO the confusion of orientation, St. Mary's finds that it has three "McDonalds" in its new class — two "Patricia Ann's" and a "Joan."

Both Patricia McDonalds are from the Rochester area. One is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Kenneth McDonald of 8 Somerset Street, Rochester and is a graduate of Nazareth Academy. The other is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald of 8 Jackson Park, Pittsford; she is a graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Miss Joan McDonald is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McDonald of Marathon, N. Y.

The Freshmen were entertained in the past week by their "big sisters" of the Class of '55 at a party on campus, a faculty tea, picnic and supper given by the Daughters of Charity who administer the Hospital and School of Nursing.

Freshman orientation will be completed next week when the student government sponsors a "Get-Acquainted Week."

National Honors For 2 Nazareth Publication

Two Nazareth Academy publications received honors in the Catholic School Press Association survey and rating for the school year 1956-57 according to Dean J. L. O'Sullivan, director, this week.

The Lantern, school yearbook, edited by Barbara Fakler, 461 Magee Avenue, now attending Nazareth College on a scholarship, was selected as a book of distinction. This honor is awarded to a small percentage of the yearbooks receiving the All Catholic Award.

The Gabriel, school newspaper, edited by Paula Burke, 51 Allerton Street, who is attending Villa Maria College, also on a scholarship, was rated All Catholic in the newspaper division.

The Catholic School Press Association is sponsored by the School of Journalism, Marquette University. Its purpose is to assist student editors in maintaining high standards of journalism in their work of diffusing Catholic thought and promoting Catholic activities.

Marlene Wozniak, 173 Pershing Drive, is editor of the 1957-58 Gabriel. Associate editors are Joan Muscatella, 612 Maple St., and Irene Raetz, 127 Sunset St. and Mary Wyand.

CYO In The News

Rev. Eugene H. McFarland, Director of the Catholic Youth Organization, announced this week that the Catholic Youth Organization's Fall and Winter Schedule will get underway within the next few weeks.

Several special events will get under way immediately. Father McFarland announced that Sunday, Sept. 15, the C.Y.O. will begin its eighth season of T-Dances with an all freshmen dance. Freshmen from all the Rochester area Catholic high schools are invited to come and get acquainted during the hours of 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. to the music of the Starlighters. On the following Sunday, September 22, the T-Dance program will begin for all high school students and this program will continue throughout the year except during Lent. It will feature dancing in a night club setting. The dances will be held in the C.Y.O. gym every Sunday afternoon.

Classes will be under the direction of Mrs. Helene Lote, C.Y.O. Dance Instructor. Classes will be held for the grammar school and high school youngsters Friday afternoons from 3:30 p.m. until 6:30 p.m. For information concerning these classes, contact the C.Y.O. Program Office at BAKER 5-7400, Extension 11.

TINY TOTS Swimming Classes for youngsters between the ages of four and six years will begin the week of September 23. Persons interested in signing up for these classes (5 week series) may call Miss Stambach, C.Y.O. Director of Aquatics, for time assignments and further information. C. Y. O. telephone number is BAKER 5-7400, Extension 10.
