Mt. Carmel football squad (From left) John Walsh, quarterback; Lawrence Shelton, fullback; William Meagher, and Robert Mowery, halfback. Team opens against Palmyra-Macedon this Saturday at McQuaid at 8:30 p.m.

Teenage Gridders

(Continued from Page 1)

Oct. 5, against Brockport there; Oct. 12, against Auburn's McDonnell there; Oct. 26, against Irondequoit at McQuaid; and Nov. 2, against Livonia at McQuaid.

Besides the starting players, Coach Mazzarella has a bench full of reserves including Sal Lascara, Thomas Gilmartin, Richard Genesee, Paul Remerson, Michael Wellert, Al Grasser, Gene Kaiser and Daniel Scanlon.

Assisting the McQuaid coach are Herbert Janik and Thomas Brennan. George Kongton is director of athletics at the Jesuit school.

Mt. Carmel

Mt. Carmel high school of Auburn will open its first varsity football season against Webster high school this Saturday at 2 p.m.

Donald Bucci, new coach at the Carmelite school, is assisted by Raymond Flynn in piloting the "Carmelites" in their first season as a four-year high school team. The Mt. Carmel school was opened three years ago.

Mt. Carmel has six additional games scheduled. Oct. 5 at Cheektowaga high school; Oct. 5 at Cheektowaga will be at Auburn's Owasco Park; Oct. 19 at McQuaid of Rochester; Oct. 26 at Aquinas Oct. 26 at Rochester; Corning Free Acad. may Nov. 1 at Auburn; and the season closes on Nov. 9.

Home games at Mt. Carmel will be played in the East High School stadium, Franklin St. Auburn.

Geneseo

Despite tight security, Geneseo will meet its traditional rival, Geneseo High for its opening game this Saturday at 2 p.m. at Geneseo's Sturges Park.

"We never beat 'em often enough we will this year," claims Dr. Silas Cousin, Edinet Alumni.

Backfield stars for the "Saints" are Arthur Palmieri, quarterback; John O'Connor, left back; Thomas Hayden, and Robert Kenny, right back.

Besides 1957 schedule lists eight games opening this Saturday will be followed with games against Waterloo Sept. 28 at Geneseo; Cuba a night game on Oct. 4 Spencer, Wellsville there Oct. 12; there; Dansville Mendon, Oct. 19; Honeoye Falls, Nov. 2; and Penn Yan, Nov. 9. On the two dates Nov. 1 and 16 there will be games with Alumni.

Dave Gautier shown with his dog, "Rusty," hero of the Rourke priest's latest book, "A Priest and His Dog."

BOOK SHELF

A Priest And His Dog

By Sister Margaret Teresa, S.S.J., Nazareth College

A PRIEST AND HIS DOG. By Peter Rourke. Garrison & Jones, Limited, Dublin & Belmont, Illustrated by Cassowal. Imprimatur: Leo Smith, W. P. & D. Dublin. $3.50. At all Catholic bookstores.

A dog without hope. Unless ever on the approach of his captors, is accepted by a theologian that lives there's one of God's greatures. He becomes dumber on [illegible] matter of many miseries and a [illegible] understood.

In return, he gives the priest [illegible] devotion and unfailing sympathy. A loyal, unreserved love is [illegible] apostolic gesture like it [illegible] eventful ... Rourke himself happens [illegible] his as extraordinary in [illegible] way as the Seven Miracles of the Wall of Dublin.

THE MASTIFF (who is the subject of [illegible] interesting things) the dog Rourke understand.

In this type of thing an author [illegible] always [illegible] ... judges as with any [illegible] ... a secondary matter.

The Rev. Charles Dickens [illegible] ... Dublin. [illegible] ... [illegible] ... [illegible] ...