Tureen Supper Set By Ithaca Society

Ithaca — Plans have been completed for a Tureen Supper by the Ithaca Rosary and Altar Society. The committee chairmaned by Mrs. William J. Kiernan, met the evening of Oct. 8 at the home of Mrs. Charlotte DeWitt, President of the Society.

The Tureen Supper is to be held Monday, Oct. 14 at 6:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Guests will be students from foreign lands attending Cornell University. The women are requested to bring a dish to pass, a roll, and their own table service.

Corning Deaths

Corning — Solemn High Requiem Mass was offered Thursday morning, Oct. 3, at St. Patrick Church, Corning for Mrs. Catherine M. Young, wife of Benjamin Young, 269 Denison Pkwy. East, who had died at her home the previous Monday evening following a lengthy illness.

The Rev. Walter Cushing of Rochester, nephew of the deceased, was celebrant. The Rev. William Tobin was deacon and the Rev. Gerald Dunn was subdeacon. Both priests are at St. Patrick's Church. The Rev. Cushing was in charge of the committal in St. Mary's Cemetery.

The bearers were: Joseph Ryan, John Webster, William Henry, Lewis Warmus, Paul Tammaro and John Dunleavy.

A member of St. Patrick parish, Mrs. Young was also affiliated with its Stella Maris Society and League of the Sacred Heart.

Surviving besides her husband, is one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Jarocz of Detroit, Mich. There are also three grandchildren of Detroit and several nieces and nephews.

Corning — Victor W. Mocker, 46, of 175 Park Ave., office manager of Steuben Glass Inc. and a veteran employe of that Corning Glass Works affiliate, died at Corning Hospital last Saturday evening. He had taken ill the previous Thursday and removed to the hospital on Saturday.

He was born in this city Oct. 21, 1911, attended the local parochial schools and was graduated from Northside High School in 1928.

He had bee employed by the Corning Glass Works for 29 years.

He was a communicant of St. Patrick's Church and a member of the Glass Works Production Club and Corning Lodge of Elks.

Corning — George H. McCabe, 85, of 186 W. Third St., died Wednesday, Oct. 2, at his home. Following prayers at the A. W. Bielby and Son Funeral Home Monday morning of this week, Requiem Mass was offered in St. Mary's Church with burial taking place in the family plot in St Mary's Cemetery.

Mr. McCabe, a native and life long resident of Corning, was born April 19, 1872.

He was employed at the Corning Brick and Terra Cotta Works here in Corning until its closing. He was a member of St Mary's parish and its Holy Name Society.

Surviving are five nieces, Miss Nina McCabe, Mrs. Leon J. Sheedy, both of Corning, Mrs. Eva LeShure, Mrs. Mabel Byrne and Mrs. Miles McIntyre, all of Elmira, formerly of Corning and one nephew, Norman McCabe of Phoenix, Ariz.

St. Casimir Society Hears Rosary Devotion Stressed

Members of the Rosary Society of St. Casimir Church, Elmira heard the Rev. Bartholomew O'Brien of St. Peter & Paul Church at a dinner Sunday evening, Oct. 6, at Mark Twain Hotel.

The dinner celebrated the success of a project of the society, the installation in church of a new stained glass window, the Nativity scene, a donation made by the Rosary Society.

The Rev. Ladislaus J. Szczepanski, pastor, and the Rev. Leonard Kujawski, assistant, were guests of honor.

Mrs. Joseph Kosmicki, president, was chairman assisted by the officers: Mrs. Monica O'Brien, vice president; Mrs. Leona Lepkowski, treasurer; Mrs. Alice Fredericks, secretary, and Mrs. Sophie Kukulka, marshal.

Music was furnished by Miss Betty Ranlewicz and songs by Mrs. Marie Novick.

FATHER O'BRIEN stressed the need of obedience to Our Lady's request at Fatima for the recitation of the family Rosary. It is the only answer, the only cure, the only medicine for the ills and problems of today. He exhorted the members to be faithful to Our Lady by fulfilling this request obediently themselves and then by encouraging others to do so.
