How to have more than "Harry Next-Door"

You're an unusual man indeed if your wife fails to mention, from time to time, how "Harry Next-Door" bought his frau a new washer, or a TV, or car of her own or whathave-you. Where, she may ask, is our money going? Surprise her next time she asks! Skim a few dollars off the top of your paycheck each week into your Community Savings Account, and watch how quickly you have the cash to lavish those luxuries on your family. (And, with the help of Community's new higher dividends every six months, you'll soon be able to pass up Harry's piggy-bank savengs.)
