Music Appreciation Course Added To Aquinas Syllabus

The Department of Aquinas Institute has expanded its program to include a course in music appreciation, according to Rev. Cyril R. Udall, C.S.B., director of music. The additional course will enable Aquinas students to obtain a music major recognized by the Regents of the State of New York.

"The Aquinas Institute music curriculum," said Father Udall, "contributes to the educational needs of pupils through general music courses, specialized music courses and extraclass activities."

Experiences in the program are designed to develop music appreciation, knowledge and skill in all pupils commensurate with their needs. The curriculum provides, through a variety of activities, opportunities to develop desirable understanding and appreciation of voice and instrument in solo, ensemble and group renditions.

"OPPORTUNITIES are provided, said Father Udall, "for all pupils to develop their talents to be appreciative listeners and satisfactory participants in a variety of group music activities, while, at the same time, effort is made in the program to locate and train pupils having exceptional aptitudes and abilities.

Father Udall, who has been at Aquinas for four years, is a graduate of Assumption University, the Eastman School of Music and is an Associate of the Royal Conservatory of Music.

Army Religion At Peak Says Chaplain Chief

Stuttgart, Germany — (NC) — "Although we have a smaller Army and fewer chaplains, the Army's religious program has never been in a position of such strength as it is today."

Monsignor (Maj. Gen.) Patrick J. Ryan, chief of Army chaplains, made this statement here in an address to chaplains stationed in this area.

Monsignor Ryan gave credit for the success of the Army's program to "the zeal and work of the unit chaplain." He also praised the commanders for their cooperation with chaplains and the high caliber of Army personnel now serving.

Msgr. Ryan is making a tour of military posts throughout Europe.

Order Resumes Work In Warsaw

Warsaw (NC) — The Marian Fathers are returning to their former home here after being absent for three years.

The community was forced to leave its school several years ago by the Stalinist regime. In 1954 the large buildings were taken over by the so-called Theological Academy, set up by the communist government.

Roman Organist To Give Concert At Old St. Mary's

Fermando Germani, renowned virtuoso of the organ will play at Old St. Mary's Church, South Street on Monday, October 21, at 8:15 p.m. under the sponsorship of the Rochester Chapter, American Guild of Organists.

Germani is organ professor and teacher of organ composition at the State Conservatory of Music in Rome, and a member of the St. Cecilia Academy of Music, Rome.

The e positions he fills in be- [illegible] a heavily booked concert schedule in Europe, the United States and South America.

One of the busiest organists in the world, Germani still finds time to write text books and to compose for the organ.

IN ADDITION to hundreds of solo recitals, Germani has also appeared as guest soloist with numerous orchestras under celebrated conductors Stokowski, Sir Henry Wood, de Sabata and many others of equal fame have been on the podium with Germani as guest artist.

Born and trained in Rome, Germani numbers among his many distinguished teachers Ottorino Respighi, who was his master in composition. He was awarded diplomas from the Royal Conservatory of Music, from the Royal St. Cecilia Academy and from the Pontifical School of Music.

LP Records Guide Christian Mothers

Pittsburgh (NC) — Eight talks by the national director of the Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers have been recorded on long-playing records for use by confraternities and other groups and individuals.

The 15-minute sermons by Father Bertin Roll, O.F.M. Cap., dealing with the purpose of the Archconfraternity, the importance of the mother's devotional practices for the home, modesty in dress of youngsters, dating and other subjects, are on four records.

The archconfraternity said Father Roll's talks are warm and intimate explanations directed toward fathers and children as well as to mothers.

The records may be purchased through the archconfraternity headquarters at 220 37th St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Don't Give So Much, Priest's Plea To People

Crookston, Minn. — (NC) — From now on Msgr. Moses Dufault is going to be more cautious about the "deals" he offers his parishioners of St. Anne's church here.

His last "deal" with the parish cost him $1,585—and narrowly missed costing him an additional $1,000.

As he tells the story with a pleased twinkle in his eyes—he underestimated his parishioners' generosity. Crookston's Bishop Francis J. Schenk called for a special collection to help the Sisters of St. Joseph to build their new motherhouse.

His parish of some 170 families usually could be counted on for contributions from $200 to $500 for special diocesan collections. As an incentive for the motherhouse collection Msgr. Dufault offered to match the contributions of the entire parish.

In order to avoid dragging out a house-to-house campaign, the pastor set a deadline — a lucky decision for his pocketbook. The parishioners showered down $1,585 and the Monsignor was hard put scrapping up the matching fund. Then he learned how valuable a time limit can be.

Just a few days after the close of the campaign a check for $1,000 was received from a donor, who prefers to remain anonymous, was not only generous but considerate. By holding off with his contribution, he erased the necessity of the pastor making a trip to the poorhouse.

Orthodox Film Shows Cardinal Stepinac As War Criminal

Belgrade — (RNS) — Members of a visiting Russian Orthodox Church delegation, including Patriarch Alexei of Moscow, viewed a propaganda film on Aloysius Cardinal Stepinac, Archbishop of Zagreb who is confined by the Communist government to his native village of Krasic.

The movie, which portrays the cardinal as a war criminal and a collaborator with the Nazis, was shown at the government building here. Among those present were Patriarch Vikentije of the Serbian Orthodox Church, host to the Russian churchmen, and other Serbian bishops.

Cardinal Stepinac was released from prison in 1951 after serving five years of a 16 year sentence for alleged political offenses. He is not permitted by the government to function as an archbishop.

Catholic Theatre Marks Six Years, Plans One-Acters

Sixth anniversary of the Catholic Theatre of Rochester will be celebrated by members this Sunday, Oct. 29, at a meeting in Holy Redeemer Church hall.

A round table discussion will be held with Miss Jean Strachan as moderator.

ORGANIZATIONS wishing to have one-act Christmas plays performed at their holiday meetings between Dec. 1 and 20 should contact Miss Patricia Farrell, GReenfield 3-3138 or write Catholic Theatre of Rochester, P.O. Box 1249, Rochester.
