Weddings In Corning

Radziwon - Partridge

Corning—In a Buffalo ceremony, Miss Beverly Ann Partridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Ross of 19 Erwin St., Painted Post, became the bride of Norman J. Radziwon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casimir Radziwon of 75 Leonard Post Drive, Painted Post, last Saturday morning.

The double ring wedding ceremony was performed and Nuptial Mass celebrated at 10 o'clock in St. John Gaulbert Church at Buffalo. Assorted floral arrangements were at the altar.

Miss Constance DeCamp of Geneseo was maid of honor, while the bridesmaids were: Miss Barbara Gray of Sterling, Miss Shirley Hoffman of Fulton and Miss Carol Radziwon of Buffalo.

Ronald Radziwon of Buffalo was best man for his brother. Ushers were: Donald McCaughty of Leicester, Paul Ziemblec of Buffalo, and Gerald Kozlowski of Buffalo.

Kowalcyk - Martin

Bath—St. Stanislaus Church in Bradford was the scene October 12 of the marriage of Miss Gladys Irene Martin, daughter of Mrs. Sophie Martin of 7 Hubble Street, Bath and Stanley Albert Kowalcyk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley T. Kowalcyk of Bradford.

The Rev. Stanley Bialaszewski officiated at the 11 a.m. ceremony while Miss Anna Mae Kowalcyk acted as maid of honor and Roland Martin as best man.

Other attendants for the couple were bridesmaids, Jeanette and Anita Martin, sisters of the bride; ushers, Anthony Yorski and Thomas Todd; flower girl, Miss Joan Baker and ring bearer, James Bocek.

ROTC ASSIGNMENT MADE AT NIAGARA UNIVERSITY

Niagara University, N.Y.—Sgt. Earl B. Unger, East Greenbush, N.Y., has been assigned to the staff of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit at Niagara University, according to an announcement by Lt. Col. Morrell R. Sexton, professor of military science and tactics.

$2,700 Raised At Corning Bazaar

THIRD ANNUAL Bazaar of Corning St. Mary's Rosary Society was a huge success at the school hall last Thursday and Friday with upwards of $2,700 netted for the Rosary Society fund accumulated during the past three years as a special gift toward the current school building program of the parish. Shown are Mrs. Keith Merrick, left, bazaar chairman, and Mrs. Domenic Asiello, cochairmen, looking over scores of gifts donated by Rosary Society members and citizens of Corning for sale at last week's fund-raising project. (Corning Leader photo.)

Corning Knights Map Activities

Corning—Activities planned by Corning Council, Knights of Columbus at a meeting of officers held in the Knights of Columbus Home include a clam bake, euchre tournament and Christmas and New Year's Eve parties.

A stag party is planned for Oct. 24, following the regular meeting.

AN INDOOR clam bake is scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 2; a memorial service for Knights who have died in the past year will be held at the regular meeting Thursday, Nov. 14, and another stag party on Nov. 28.

The Christmas party for members, their wives and guests has been slated for Dec. 26 and the New Year's Eve party will be held at the K. of C. Home on December 31.

A dinner has been planned for the Knights and their wives for November. According to Leonard Dziadkowicz, grand knight, the date of the dinner will be set later. Dziadkowicz reported that 20 men have signed up to play euchre and the Council is looking for opponents from either the Elmira Council, Knights of Columbus, or some department of Corning Glass Works.

Weise CoCaptain At Bonaventure

St. Bonaventure, N.Y. Larry Weise of East Rochester, and Johnny Connors of Syracuse hve been named co-captains of the 1957 58 basketball team at St. Bonaventure University.

Weise, an honor student majoring in physics, led the team in scoring last season with a 13.5 point average. The 21?year-old senior shot 47?? from the field and averaged two "steals" a game. He will direct this year's team from his backcourt position. Weise is a graduate of East Rochester High.

In two years of varsity competition, Weise has totaled 466 points, has grabbed 204 rebounds, and scored 108 free throws.

New Cathedral Blessed In Duluth

Duluth, Minn. (NC) — The new Cathedral of Our Lady of the Rosary here was blessed by Bishop Thomas A. Welch of Duluth in the presence of some 12 members of the hierarchy.

The cathedral is a basilica-styled church with a soaring tower visible for many miles, and and adjoining parish administration building. Construction was started on it in the fall of 1954.

Funeral Rites In Corning

Corning — Edward Charles Schneider, 56, of Caton Road, leading Corning construction company official, St. Patrick's Church and Boy Scout lay leader, died Tuesday, Oct. 15, at Corning Hospital where he had been a patient only two days. He was vice president of the Manning Construction Co., a leading Corning firm.

Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Patrick Church last Friday morning with the Rev. Gerald Dunn, assistant pastor, in charge following prayers at the A. W. Bielby and Son Funeral Home. The Rev. William Tobin, administrator of the parish, and the Rev. Harold F. Rogers, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Painted Post, were in the sanctuary.

Father Tobin was in charge of the committal in St. Mary's Cemetery. Bearers were John Connelly, Frank Philip, Eugene Manning Jr., Roswell Haupt, John Eberenz and H. Perry Bradley.

Surviving besides Mrs. Schneider are two children, a daughter, Elizabeth of Cleveland, O., and a son, John, a student at Michigan State University; two sisters, Mrs. John McVeight and Mrs. Joseph Stark, both of North Ridgeville, O.

Corning — Matthew C. O'Brien of 19 W. Fourth St. died at Corning Hospital Thursday, Oct. 17, following several weeks illness. Funeral services were held Monday of this week with prayers at the late residence followed by Mass at St. Mary's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mr. O'Brien was born in Canandaigua Sept. 23, 1879.

A member of the St. Mary's Church, he is survived by one daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth O'Brien of Corning; one sister, Mrs. Walter H. Taylor of Hilton, N.Y., and several nephews and nieces, including Dr. Richard A. O'Brien of Corning and Mrs. Joseph Hallett of Rochester.

Corning—The funeral of Leslie Marie Holland of 20 Spaulding St., Elmira, was held Wednesday morning, Oct. 16, with prayers at the A. W. Bielby and Son Funeral Home and Mass of Angels sung by the Rev. William Tobin in St. Patrick's Church. Acolytes were John Howe, Thomas Poland and Terence Young. Father Tobin also officiated at the committal in St. Mary's Cemetery, with Anthony Ambrosia, Robert Prouty, Ned Rew, Dr. Carlos Gutierrez as bearers.

The 4½-year old daughter of John and Mary Bavis Holland, both formerly of Corning, died the previous Monday in Arnot-Ogden Hospital in Elmira following a two day illness.

The child was born in Corning April 30, 1953.

Surviving are: her parents, two sisters, Laura and Claire at home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holland of Painted Post and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Edward Bavis of Corning.

Corning—The Rev James Malley, assistant pastor, was celebrant in St. Mary's Church last Saturday morning for the Requiem Mass of Mrs. Frances C. Hart of 123 W. First St. Mrs. Hart, wife of the late John J. Hart, died in Corning Hospital the previous Thursday, having been a patient there for 10 days.

The Rev. Thomas Brennan, pastor of St. Mary's officiated at the committal in St. Mary's Cemetery. Bearers were Hugh F. Cunningham, Joseph Tunney, Robert McGregor, Robert Dowd, Colton Marx and Francis Giblin.

Mrs. Hart was a native of Corning, born September 16, 1875 to the late Frank and Catherine Norton Farrell.

She was married to John J. Hart May 26, 1914, at St. Mary's Church by the Rev. Bustin. Mr. Hart died here in 1936.

A member of St. Mary's Parish, Mrs. Hart was affiliated with its League of the Sacred Heart and Holy Name Society.

Surviving are: one son, John J. Hart Jr. of Muskogee, Okla., four grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews in Corning.

J. E. Grapensteter Rites Conducted

Funeral services for J. Edward Grapensteter, Sr., brother of Elmer G. Grapensteter, circulation manager of the Catholic Courier Journal were held at Sacred Heart Cathedral following services at Haubner and Stallknecht Funeral Home.

Mr. Grapensteter, 72, died at his home, 289 Merrill St., Thursday, Oct. 17, 1957.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Michael Hogan assisted by the Rev. Edwin Wedow, deacon and the Rev. James Marvin, subdeacon. William Flynn, a seminarian at St. Bernard's and a grandson of the deceased, was master of ceremonies.

His Excellency, Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence B. Casey was in the Sanctuary.

Bearers were: Verpon Smith, George Hiscock, Robert Scott, Elmer Grapensteter, Jr., David and Raymond Johnson.

Mr. Grapensteter who retired several years ago from Eastman Kodak Co., was a member of the Holy Name Society of Sacred Heart Cathedral and of the Eastman Pioneer Club.

He is survived by his wife, Theresa Hoff Grapensteter; two sons, Milton E. of West Covina, Calif. and John E. Grapensteter Jr.; two daughters, Mrs. William (Theresa) Flynn and Mrs. Clarence Eleanore) Meder of Ontario, Calif.; 10 grandchildren; his brother, Elmer G.; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Kline and Mrs. George (Clara) Lauterbach.

Father Hogan imparted the final blessing at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Brother Prelates Bless Cathedral

Sherbrooke, Que.—(NC)—Archbishop L. J. Cabana of Rubaga, Africa, a member of the White Fathers, blessed the Cathedral of St. Michael here.

FRIDAY, NOV. 1st
LAST DAY
TO PAY UP YOUR CHRISTMAS CLUB
Christmas Club Checks Will Be Mailed
Before the New Christmas Club Opens
November 18th
Christmas Club Payments Due at any of our Offices
Accepted at our Drive-In, Carroll St.
MARINE MIDLAND TRUST COMPANY
of Southern New York
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Greetings
To Bishop Kearney
On His Silver Jubilee
The Edgcomb Furniture Company congratulates the

PERSONIUS & MALONE
Glenmoor