

Our Lady's Bishop.

Our Lady's Bishop

To James Edward Kearney, Bishop of Rochester, on the occasion of his Silver Jubilee in the Hierarchy, October 28, 1937, and in tribute to his loyal devotion to the Holy Mother of God.

OUR LADY is on her way
This Silver Jubilee Day.
On this October morn
full of memories born
She seeks "Our Lady's Bishop."

HE WAS RAISED to Bishop's ways
By Patrick Cardinal Hayes.
His coat-of-arms is blest
with Mary's azure crest.
He is "Our Lady's Bishop."

ACROSS UTAH'S mountain hold
He wrote Mary's name in gold,
And made the Genesee
her mystic Galilee,
For he's "Our Lady's Bishop."

ROCHESTER gives no thought
To his scars from battles fought.
His Queen's ensign flies free,
proclaims sure victory
For "Our Lady's Bishop."

HIS DEEDS like Rosary prayer,
Offered to Our Lady Fair, Adorn her mantelet —
a bright Silver Chaplet
From "Our Lady's Bishop."

AS AT CANA, she keeps fast
The best wine until the last.
Today Our Lady smiles
her sweetest, tenderest smiles
Upon "Our Lady's Bishop."
