Church In Kurampala With Gift

Completion, this year, of Kurampala, India, rev. at Our Lady of Mercy of the $9,332 total cost of Mission Day, two years ago. High School boys raised through a guesstimate to Mar Gregorios, the crusaders met at the Scenerama.

The joyful, bearded Archbishop stressed the great needs of the millions in southern India he has helped bring to the light.

During his sermon at the Scenerama evening, the Archbishop stressed the need for more churches in India and that for a little more than $2,000 he could build a church in his country. The Merciful God to help him.

AS MERCY Mission No. 22 and 23 draw the gratitude of Archbishop Gregorios has come in an opportunity to the present students who graduated upon completion of the Chapel at Kurampala 16 miles from Trivandrum to his native place.

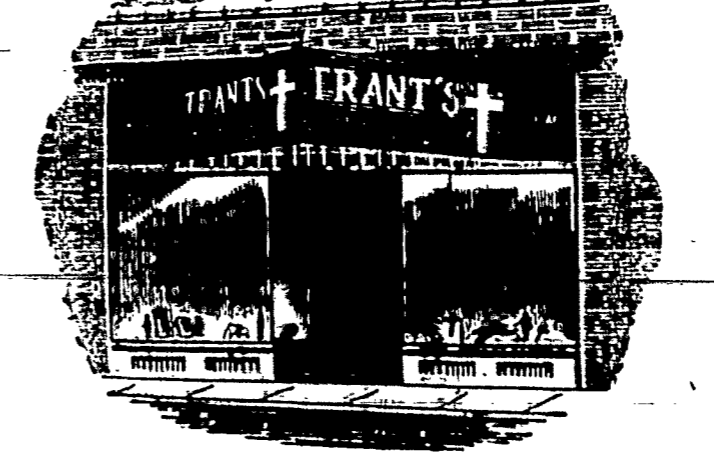

The church was dedicated 25 this year. More than 100 in the place than Christ, whole population, Catholic and Hindus for the dedication ceremony which is built of granite and can accommodate 400 persons.

"The great zeal and energy showed for the mission of My Mission and the sacrifice which you have made to help me will always be remembered with gratitude Archbishop Gregorios.

"Since my return to India thousands of people have received into the In one station called baptised with the help of our priest, 150 persons (ly Sunday. Over a hundred people have come to Church since you made this State. That means Church is faced with the dangers. We need your more than ever.

Catholic Students Mission president in 1955 Mrs. Ross, now 'Sist' Maura, a novice in the of Mercy.
