She was assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Donohue, Mrs. Joseph Hickey, Mrs. Zita Cool, Mrs. Fred Risser, Mrs. Evelyn Murray, Miss Mary Tracy and Miss Julia Hartnett.

Rev. Gerard J. Gull, court chaplain, addressed the members on the importance of woman's role in the world as a good or bad influence. He urged the members to always conduct themselves in their contacts with others so as to increase love of God not only for themselves but in their fellowmen.

A letter from the Christmas Gifts Clearing House was read and action taken to help at least two families at Christmas time. This project will be directed by Miss Gertrude Kennedy and members are asked to contact her regarding contributions.

Members of the Court will sponsor a Halloween party for the children of the school for Rotarion children. This affair will be handled by Mrs. George Frank, Miss Bernadine J. Cox and Mrs. Patrick Mullally.

It was further decided to continue the Christmas program of gifts for the local nursing homes and to give all members a chance to participate. Gifts may be brought to both the November and December meetings.

Miss Louis W. Moore, grand regent, read a radio-gram from the C. O. A. state bulletin on "How to Go to Mass." Miss Gertrude Kennedy will be chairman for the November meeting.

BABES TOO — A few infants, like Rita Gutmann, two-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gutmann, came to Bishop Kearney's jubilee celebration in their mother's arms. "We thought that someday she would like to know that she had been here," said Rita's mother.
