Suzanne Crist Takes Lead In Senior Play Play Reading Highlights Meet

A former "queen," Suzanne Crist, Nazareth Academy senior, will become a make-believe princess next week for the Academy's annual play, "The Swan" by Ferenc Molnar.

Suzanne was the Monroe County Harvest Queen in 1956 and presided over the New York State Fair. The role of Princess Andrada in "The Swan" is the same recently played in the movies by Grace Kelly, who became a real princess on her marriage to Prince Ranier of Monaco.

Vice president of the Student Council, Suzanne was a representative to the Council in both her sophomore and junior years and was president of her freshman class.

A WELL KNOWN local fashion model, Suzanne has modeled for Sibley's, The National and McCurdy's. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Crist.

Play is under the direction of Sister M. St. Gertrude, S.S.J. Also starring in "The Swan" is Patrick Struel, graduate of Assumption University and member of Rochester's Catholic Theatre and Music Theatre.

"QUEEN PLAYS 'PRINCESS'" as former Monroe County Harvest Queen, Suzanne Crist, takes on the role of a Princess in Nazareth Academy's production of Ferenc Molnar's "The Swan." Play is scheduled in the Academy auditorium, Lake Ave. on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Nov. 6, 7 and 8 at 8 p.m.

Coming: A play reading was presented as special entertainment at the regular meeting of the St. Patrick's Stella Maris Society in the church hall recently.

The reading was presented by three members of the Cornish Workshop Players: Mrs. Louis Kurin, Miss Alice Brundage and Miss Mary Mikolajczak, the latter also acting as meeting chairman.

"My Day for the Spencers," a play reading celebrating the centennial in the home was shown.

The Rev. Gerald Dun, society moderator, announced that the memorial service for departed members would be in the church on Sunday, Nov. 10, at 3 p.m. Miss Mary Mikolajczak, meeting chairman, was assisted by Mrs. John Benza, Mrs. Michael Gonta, Mrs. Margaret Dowling, Mrs. Clarence Farmer, Regina Harzinski, Eileen Holman, Mary Arthur and Frances Mikolajczak in serving refreshments.

'Mary's Bishop' Leads Rosary

"Our Lady's Bishop" climaxed his birthday by broadcasting the Rosary over Radio station WSAW on Monday evening.

Bishop Kearney led members of the Legion of Mary who packed St. Francis of Assisi Church in the prayers of the nightly 7 p.m. broadcast of the "Family Rosary For Peace."

After this Rosary, the Bishop voiced his thanks for the "love and devotion" shown him in Sunday's two hour program of tributes to him at the Rochester Community War Memorial.

He expressed his gratitude to "newspapers, TV and radio stations" which featured the story across front pages and on their news report programs.

Bishop Kearney said he was "very deeply touched" by the thousands who received Holy Communion in their parish churches Sunday morning "to pray for me."

He said he was glad "to take up my crozier once again" to be the spiritual Shepherd of "a wonderful people, a zealous clergy, and self-sacrificing religious."

"My birthday prayer is this," he said, "May God bless my flock... everyone!"
