Play Ready At Mercy High To Highlight Mission Day

"Mother Is A Freshman," a comedy, will be presented as Our Lady of Mercy High School's Mission Day show on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 22 and 23.

OTHER CAST members include: George Mancuso, Frar Hauser, Jack Donlon, Joe Badami and Tom Doland, Tom Scheg, Suk Klipfinger, Jackie Kulas, Sur Stiewe, Margie Carey, Mary Mulligan and Donna Martens.

The three act play, which has been set to music, will have Elaine Klinger, Janet Bronson and Dean Fay in leading roles.

Sister Mary Plus, director, is assisted by Sister Mary Leo, Mary Joanne, and Mary Stanislaus.

The Aquinas St. Genesius Dramatic Club recently began a new season with its annual Communion Breakfast and Holy Mass in honor of St. Genesius.

The meeting that followed was held on the Aquinas stage and was conducted by Miss Jeanne Hogan, retiring vice-president.

Officers elected for the coming year were John Herman, Aquinas senior, and Miss Suzanne Sorokti.

Father J. L. Cullen, C.S.B., club moderator, congratulated the members on their fidelity to their patron, St. Genesius, and pointed out that God is honored in His saints.

HE URGED moreover that members of St. Genesius own club should make an effort to have the pattern of actors become a force in their own lives by imitation of his virtues.

Father Cullen also announced that the two plays selected for presentation in the coming dramatic year would be "The Tea House of the August Moon" and the musical "Oklahoma."

Meeting concluded with the setting of try-out dates for members of both casts of forthcoming plays.

Women's Choral Club Scheduled For Mercy

A concert of Christmas and other seasonal music by the Women's Choral Club under the direction of Mrs. Homer W. Eurbank will be held on Dec. 8 at 8:15 p.m. in Mercy High Auditorium.

The Monroe County Council of Catholic Women, whose president is Mrs. Grace Bishop, is sponsoring this event in an effort to raise funds necessary to carry on the year's activities.

TICKETS ARE being distributed to the various groups affiliated with the Council by Mrs. Maurice Hafner and her co-chairman, Mrs. Francis Corrigan.

St. Agnes High School

Skit, Concert, Parents Night To Mark Education Week

The golden age of Greece will meet with modern times when the ancient Greek King Pericles is portrayed Friday, Nov. 15 on the stage of St. Agnes High School, as part of American Education Week of services.

EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM of ancient times will be compared with that of today, noting the importance of co-curricular activities as a supplement to modern classroom work.

Authors of the skit are Juniors Sharon Kelly, Betty Schnack and Judy Webber.

Parents Night for members of the junior class will take place on Wednesday, Nov. 13, at which time reports cards will be passed out and informal, private discussions held between parents and teachers.
